SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

DoD is proposing to amend the DFARS to implement in the clauses at 252.225-7044, Balance of Payments Program—Construction Material, and 252.225-7045, Balance of Payments Program—Construction Material under Trade Agreements, the exemption from the Balance of Payments Program for construction material that is commercial information technology. This exemption was added to the policy at DFARS 225.7501(a)(2)(vi) under FAR Case 2005-D011, to correspond to the exemption from the Buy American Act provided in annual appropriations acts since fiscal year 2004, because the Balance of Payments Program is an extension of the requirements of the Buy American Act to supplies or construction material to be used overseas. However, although the policy stated that it could apply to supplies or construction material, it was only implemented with regard to acquisition of supplies. This rule proposes to make the Balance of Payments Program construction clauses consistent with the stated policy.

This rule was subject to Office of Management and Budget review under Executive Order 12866, dated September 30, 1993.

B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

DoD does not expect this rule to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., because this rule does not impose economic burdens on contractors. The purpose and effect of this rule is to clarify the use of several terms. Therefore, DoD has not performed an initial regulatory flexibility analysis. DoD invites comments from small business concerns and other interested parties on the expected impact of this rule on small entities.

DoD will also consider comments from small entities concerning the existing regulations in subparts affected by this rule in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 610. Interested parties must submit such comments separately and should cite 5 U.S.C. 610 (DFARS Case 2009-D041) in correspondence.

C. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act (Pub. L. 104-13) does not apply because the proposed rule contains no information collection requirements.
