The list of petitions for the 2009 Annual Review can be found in "List of Country Practice Petitions Accepted in the 2009 GSP Annual Review," found on the USTR Web site at: <http://www.ustr.gov/trade-topics/trade-development/preference-programs/generalized-system-preference-gsp/current-review-1>. Submissions must be in English, with the total submission not to exceed 30 single-spaced standard letter-size pages in 12-point type, including attachments. Any data attachments to the submission should be included in the same file as the submission itself, and not as separate files.

Petitions for the 2010 Country Practices Review must conform to the regulations at 15 CFR part 2007. Petitions for the 2010 Country Practices Eligibility Review in response to this notice must be submitted to docket USTR-2010-0017. To make a submission using <http://www.regulations.gov>, enter docket number USTR-2010-0017 on the home page and click "search." The site will list all documents associated with this docket. Find a reference to this notice by selecting "Notices" under "Document Type" on the left side of the search results page, and click on the link entitled "Submit a Comment." The <http://www.regulations.gov> Web site offers the option of providing comments by filling in a "Type Comment and Upload File" field or by attaching a document. Given the detailed nature of the information sought by the GSP Subcommittee, it is preferred that comments and submissions be provided in an attached document. Any data attachments to the submission should be included in the same file as the submission itself, and not as separate files. When attaching a document, type: (1) 2010 GSP Annual Review (2) The Country and subject area of the petition (3) "See attached" in the "Type Comment and Upload File" field on the online submission form, and indicate on the attachment whether the document is a petition. Submissions must be in English, with the total submission not to exceed 30 single-spaced standard letter-size pages in 12-point type, including attachments.

Each submitter will receive a submission tracking number upon completion of the submissions procedure at <http://www.regulations.gov>. The tracking number will be the submitter's confirmation that the submission was received, and it should be kept for the submitter's records. USTR is not able to provide technical assistance for the website. Documents not submitted in accordance with these instructions may not be considered in this review. If unable to provide submissions as requested, please contact the GSP Program to arrange for an alternative method of transmission.

Business Confidential Comments

A person requesting that information contained in a submission submitted by that person be treated as confidential business information must certify that such information is business confidential and would not customarily be released to the public by the submitter. Confidential business information must be clearly designated as such, the submission must be marked "BUSINESS CONFIDENTIAL" at the top and bottom of the cover page and each succeeding page, and the submission should indicate, via brackets, the specific information that is confidential. Additionally, "Business Confidential" must be included in the "Type Comment & Upload File" field. Anyone submitting a comment containing business confidential information must also submit as a separate submission a non-confidential version of the confidential submission, indicating where confidential information has been redacted. The non-confidential version will be placed in the docket and open to public inspection.

Notice of Public Hearing

A hearing will be held by the GSP Subcommittee of the TPSC on Friday, September 24, 2010 for country practice petitions newly accepted in the 2009 GSP Annual Review beginning at 9:30 a.m. at the White House Conference Center. The hearing will be open to the public, and a transcript of the hearing will be made available for public inspection or can be purchased from the reporting company. No electronic media coverage (recording devices) will be allowed.

All interested parties wishing to make an oral presentation at the hearing must submit, following the above "Requirements for Submissions", the name, address, telephone number, and facsimile number and email address, if available, of the witness(es) representing their organization to Seth Vaughn, Director of the GSP Program by 5 p.m., September 3, 2010. Requests to present oral testimony must be accompanied by a written brief or statement, in English. Oral testimony before the GSP Subcommittee will be limited to five-minute presentations that summarize or supplement information contained in briefs or statements submitted for the record. Post-hearing briefs or statements will be accepted if they conform with the regulations cited above and are submitted, in English, by 5 p.m., October 15, 2010. Parties not wishing to appear at the public hearing may submit pre-hearing briefs or statements, in English, by 5 p.m., September 3, 2010, and post-hearing written briefs or statements, in English, by 5 p.m., October 15, 2010.

2010 Annual GSP Country Eligibility Practices Review

As noted above, the GSP regulations (15 CFR part 2007) provide the timetable for conducting an annual review, unless otherwise specified by Federal Register notice. Notice is hereby given that, in order to be considered in the 2010 Annual GSP Country Eligibility Practices Review, all petitions to review the GSP status of any beneficiary developing country must be received by the GSP Subcommittee of the Trade Policy Staff Committee no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, September 10, 2010. The announcement of any petitions accepted for review and any hearing schedule for the 2010 GSP Country Practice Eligibility Review will be announced by Federal Register at a later date.

Petitions and requests must be submitted, in English, to the Chairman of the GSP Subcommittee, Trade Policy Staff Committee, in accordance with the requirements for submissions set forth above. Submissions in response to this notice will be available for public inspection in docket USTR-2010-0017 at <http://www.regulations.gov>. Documents not submitted in accordance with these instructions may not be considered in this review.

The Future of Aviation Advisory Committee (FAAC) Subcommittee on Competitiveness and Viability; Notice of Meeting

AGENCY: U.S. Department of Transportation, Office of the Secretary of Transportation.

ACTION: Notice of Meeting.

SUMMARY: The Department of Transportation (DOT), Office of the Secretary of Transportation, announces the third meeting of the FAAC Subcommittee on Competitiveness and Viability, which will be held in Chicago, Illinois. This notice provides details on the date, time, and location of the meeting, which will be open to the public. The purpose of the FAAC is to provide advice and recommendations to the Secretary of Transportation to ensure the competitiveness of the U.S. aviation industry and its capability to manage effectively the evolving transportation needs, challenges, and opportunities of the global economy. The Subcommittee on Competitiveness and Viability is charged with examining changes in the operating and competitive structures of the U.S. airline industry; considering innovative strategies to open up new international markets and expand commercial opportunities in existing markets; investigating strategies to encourage the development of cost-effective, cutting-edge technologies and equipment that are critical for a competitive industry coping with increasing economic and environmental challenges; and examining the adequacy of current Federal programs to address the availability of intermodal transportation options and alternatives, small and rural community access to the aviation transportation system, the role of State and local governments in contributing to such access, and how the changing competitive structure of the U.S. airline industry is likely to transform travel habits of small and rural communities.

DATES: The Subcommittee on Competitiveness and Viability meeting will be held on August 24, 2010, from 9 a.m. to noon Central Daylight time.

ADDRESSES: The meeting will be held at the corporate headquarters of United Airlines, 77 West Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60601.

Public Access: The meeting is open to the public. (See below for registration instructions.)

Public Comments: Persons wishing to offer written comments and suggestions concerning the activities of the advisory committee or subcommittee should file comments in the Public Docket (Docket Number DOT-OST-2010-0074 at <http://www.regulations.gov>) or alternatively through e-mail at FAAC@dot.gov. If comments and suggestions are intended specifically for the Subcommittee on Competitiveness and Viability, the term "Competition" should be listed in the subject line of the message. To ensure such comments can be considered by the subcommittee before its August 24th meeting, public comments must be filed by 5 p.m. Eastern Daylight time Wednesday, August 18, 2010.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Agenda

Under section 10(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C. App. 2), we are giving notice of a meeting of the Subcommittee on Competitiveness and Viability of the Future of Aviation Advisory Committee taking place on August 24, 2010, at 9 a.m. Central Daylight Time, at 77 West Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60601. The agenda includes—

1. Reports from subcommittee members on assigned topics,
2. Further discussion of issues identified for possible referral to the full committee on the subject of competitiveness and viability of the aviation industry, and
3. Determination as to the issues that will be proposed for referral to the full committee.

Registration

The meeting room can accommodate up to 25 members of the public. Persons desiring to attend must pre-register by August 18, 2010, through e-mail to FAAC@dot.gov. The term "Registration: Competition" should be listed in the subject line of the message, and admission will be limited to the first 25 persons to pre-register and receive a confirmation of their pre-registration. No arrangements are being made for
