On October 1, 2010, the veterinary diagnostic services user fees for fiscal year 2011 will take effect. You may view the regulations in 9 CFR part 130, which includes charts showing all of the fiscal year 2011 veterinary import/export user fees, on the Internet at Regulation.gov, at (<http://www.regulations.gov/fdmspublic/component/main?main=DocketDetail&d=APHIS-2010-0073>).

User Fees for Export Certificates for Plants and Plant Products

User fees for the issuance of export certificates for plants and plant products are contained in 7 CFR part 354. Export certificates issued in accordance with the regulations certify agricultural products as being considered free from plant pests, according to the phytosanitary requirements of the foreign countries to which the plants and plant products may be exported. Export certificates are also issued to certify that reexported plants or plant products conform to the most current phytosanitary requirements of the importing country and that, during storage in the United States, the consignment has not been subjected to risk of infestation or infection. These export certificates must be issued in accordance with 7 CFR part 353 to be accepted in international commerce.

In a final rule published in the Federal Register on July 8, 2009 (74 FR 32391-32400, Docket No. APHIS-2006-0137), and effective October 1, 2009, we established, for fiscal years 2007 through 2012 and beyond, user fees charged for export certification of plants and plant products. Services for this category include: (1) Certification for export or reexport of a commercial shipment; (2) certification for export or reexport of a low-value commercial or noncommercial shipment; and (3) replacement of any certificate for export or reexport.

The user fees charged for export certificates for plants and plant products are found in § 354.3 and cover the following:

- Administrative fee for exporters who receive a certificate issued on behalf of APHIS by a designated State or county inspector;
- Fee for export or reexport certificate for a commercial shipment;
- Fee for an export or reexport certification for a low-value commercial shipment;
- Fee for an export or reexport certification for a noncommercial shipment; and
- Fee for replacing any certificate.

On October 1, 2010, the user fees charged for export certificates for plants and plant products for fiscal year 2011 will take effect. You may view the regulations in 7 CFR part 354, which includes charts showing all of the fiscal year 2011 user fees charged for export certificates for plants and plant products, on the Internet at Regulation.gov, at (<http://www.regulations.gov/fdmspublic/component/main?main=DocketDetail&d=APHIS-2010-0073>).
