Estimated annual reporting hours: 2,162,864 hours.

Estimated average time per response: Negative information notice, 15 minutes. Affiliate marketing opt-out notice, financial institutions 18 hours; consumer response, 5 minutes. Red flags provision, 41 hours. Risk-based pricing notices and disclosures, one-time update, 40 hours; ongoing, 5 hours. Information furnished to consumer reporting agencies, policy & procedures, 40 hours; irrelevant dispute notices 14 minutes.

Red flags provision, 1,172 financial institutions. Risk-based pricing notice and disclosure, one-time update, 18,173 financial institutions; ongoing, 18,173 financial institutions. Information furnished to consumer reporting agencies, policy & procedures, 1,172 financial institutions; irrelevant dispute notices 611,966.

General description of report: This information collection is authorized pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) (15 U.S.C. 1681b, 1681c, 1681m, and 1681s-2 and 1681s-3). The obligation to comply with the notice and disclosure requirements of Regulation V is mandatory. Because the records are maintained at state member banks and the notices are not provided to the Federal Reserve, no issue of confidentiality arises under the Freedom of Information Act.

Abstract: Regulation V contains several requirements that impose information collection requirements. Under the negative information notice provisions of the FCRA, financial institutions that (1) extend credit and regularly in the ordinary course of business furnish information to a nationwide consumer reporting agency (CRA) and (2) furnish negative information to a CRA regarding credit extended to a customer must provide a clear and conspicuous notice to the customer, in writing, about furnishing this negative information. Regulation V contains model forms developed by the Federal Reserve that financial institutions may use to comply with this notice requirement. Under the affiliate marketing provisions of Regulation V, financial institutions are prohibited from using certain information received from an affiliate to make a solicitation to a consumer unless the consumer is given notice and a reasonable opportunity to opt out of such solicitations, and the consumer does not opt out. Under the Red Flags provisions of Regulation V, financial institutions are required to develop and implement a written identity theft prevention program to detect, prevent, and mitigate identity theft in connection with the opening of certain accounts or certain existing accounts. In addition, credit and debit card issuers, under certain circumstances, are required to assess the validity of notifications of changes of address.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, August 27, 2010.

Secretary of the Board.
