

refinery, which is owned or operated by Sunoco, Inc. or its affiliates, to the former DSCP property. The defendants filed a counterclaim seeking to recover from the United States environmental cleanup costs that they incurred in connection with environmental contamination on, or allegedly originating from, the former DSCP property. The settlement agreement resolves the liability of the United States; Sunoco, Inc.; Sunoco, Inc. (R&M); Atlantic Refining and Marketing Corp.; Sunoco Partners Marketing and Terminals, LP; and Atlantic Richfield Company; to each other for the claims alleged in the complaint, amended complaint and the counterclaims in this action, subject to terms and conditions set forth in the settlement agreement and excluding any liability that the parties might have for any contamination in the Potomac-Raritan-Magothy formation below the uppermost or shallow aquifer. The proposed settlement agreement would require defendants to pay, collectively, $10 million to the United States.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the settlement agreement. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and either e-mailed to pubcomment-ees.enrd@usdoj.gov or mailed to P.O. Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611, and should refer to United States v. Sunoco, Inc., D.J. Ref. 90-11-3-07721.

The settlement agreement may be examined on the following Department of Justice Web site, http://www.usdoj.gov/enrd/Consent_Decrees.html. A copy of the settlement agreement may also be obtained by mail from the Consent Decree Library, P.O. Box 7611, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20044-7611 or by faxing or e-mailing a request to Tonia Fleetwood (tonia.fleetwood@usdoj.gov), fax no. (202) 514-0097, phone confirmation number (202) 514-1547. Federal Bureau of Investigation

Meeting of the Compact Council for the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact

AGENCY: Federal Bureau of Investigation.

ACTION: Meeting notice.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to announce a meeting of the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council (Council) created by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Act of 1998 (Compact). Thus far, the Federal Government and 29 states are parties to the Compact which governs the exchange of criminal history records for licensing, employment, and similar purposes. The Compact also provides a legal framework for the establishment of a cooperative federal-state system to exchange such records. The United States Attorney General appointed 15 persons from state and federal agencies to serve on the Council. The Council will prescribe system rules and procedures for the effective and proper operation of the Interstate Identification Index system for noncriminal justice purposes.

Matters for discussion are expected to include:

(1) Benchmarks for the National Fingerprint File Program Participation
