Amended Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Diamond Sawblades and Parts Thereof From the Republic of Korea

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

DATES: Effective Date: March 24, 2010.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David Layton or Brandon Farlander, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-0371 or (202) 482-0182, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Amendment to Final Determination

In accordance with sections 735(a) and 777(i)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), on May 22, 2006, the Department ("the Department") published its notice of final determination of sales at less than fair value ("LTFV") in the investigation of diamond sawblades and parts thereof ("DSB") from the Republic of Korea ("Korea"). See Notice of Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value and Final Determination of Critical Circumstances: Diamond Sawblades and Parts Thereof from the Republic of Korea, 71 FR 29310 (May 22, 2006) ("Final Determination"). On May 24, 2006, we received allegations, timely filed pursuant to 19 CFR 351.224(c)(2), from Ehwa Diamond Industrial Co., Ltd. ("Ehwa") and Shinhan Diamond Industrial Co., Ltd. ("Shinhan") that the Department made ministerial errors with respect to its final determination dumping margin calculations.

A ministerial error, as defined in section 751(h) of the Act, includes "errors in addition, subtraction, or other arithmetic function, clerical errors resulting from inaccurate copying, duplication, or the like, and any other type of unintentional error which the (Secretary) considers ministerial." See also 19 CFR 351.224(f). After analyzing Ehwa and Shinhan's submissions, we determined, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.224(e), that we inadvertently failed to grant Ehwa and Shinhan a constructed export price offset. Our correction of these errors results in revised margins for Ehwa and Shinhan. We have revised the calculation of the "All Others" rate accordingly.

The Department provides a detailed discussion of all ministerial errors alleged by Ehwa and Shinhan, as well as the Department's analysis in the June 28, 2006, memorandum from the team to Thomas F. Futtner, Acting Office Director, entitled, "Ministerial Error Allegations in the Final Determination of the Antidumping Duty Investigation on Diamond Sawblades and Parts Thereof from the Republic of Korea" ("June 28, 2006 Ministerial Errors Memo").

During the original investigation, the U.S. International Trade Commission ("ITC") published its final determination that an industry in the United States was not materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of imports of DSB from the People's Republic of China ("PRC") and Korea.¹ Therefore, with regard to DSB from Korea, the Department did not publish an amended final determination reflecting its ministerial error findings. Subsequently, the petitioners challenged the ITC's final negative injury determination, and on February 6, 2008, the U.S. Court of International Trade ("CIT") remanded the determination to the ITC for reconsideration.² Upon remand, the ITC changed its determination and found that a U.S. industry is threatened with material injury by reason of imports of DSB from the PRC and Korea.³

On November 4, 2009, the Department published antidumping duty orders and ordered the collection of cash deposits on subject merchandise covered by the orders. See Diamond Sawblades and Parts Thereof From the People's Republic of China and the Republic of Korea: Antidumping Duty Orders, 74 FR 57145 (November 4, 2009) ("DSB Orders"). Because the Department had not yet published an amended final determination based on the recommendations of its June 28, 2006 Ministerial Errors Memo, the Department applied cash deposit rates from the Final Determination in the DSB Orders. The Department provides a complete description of the sequence of events leading up to the issuance of the orders in the DSB Orders with references provided for the relevant decisions and notices issued by the ITC, the Department, and the CIT.
