Patricia A. Brink,

Director of Civil Enforcement.

United States District Court for the District of Columbia

United States of America, Plaintiff,

v.

Lucasfilm Ltd., Defendant.

Response of Plaintiff United States to Public Comments on the Proposed Final Judgment

Pursuant to the requirements of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. 16(b)–(h) (“APPA” or “Tunney Act”), the United States hereby responds to the public comments received regarding the proposed Final Judgment in this case. After careful consideration of the comments, the United States continues to believe that the proposed Final Judgment will provide an effective and appropriate remedy for the antitrust violations alleged in the Complaint. The United States will move the Court for entry of the proposed Final Judgment after the public comments and this response have been published in the Federal Register, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 16(d).

The United States filed a civil antitrust complaint against Lucasfilm on December 21, 2010, seeking injunctive and other relief to remedy the likely anticompetitive effects of a three-part agreement between Lucasfilm and Pixar to forbid cold-calling and to restrict certain other employee recruiting practices. The agreement reduced competition for highly-skilled digital animators and other employees, diminished potential employment opportunities for those
