Hewlett Packard Company Application Services Division Including Workers Whose Unemployment Insurance (UI) Wages Are Reported Through Universal Music Group; Fishers, IN; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (“Act”), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 22, 2010, applicable to workers of Hewlett Packard Company, Applications Services Division, Fishers, Indiana. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 8, 2010 (75 FR 68622).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers provide consulting and application development services for Hewlett Packard Company and its customers.

New information shows that in early 2010, Hewlett Packard purchased a portion of Universal Music Group and that some workers separated from employment at the Fishers, Indiana location of Hewlett Packard, Applications Services Division had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account under the name Universal Music Group. Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter. The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by a shift in the consulting and application development services to a foreign country.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-74,588 is hereby issued as follows:

“All workers of Hewlett Packard, Application Services Division, including workers whose unemployment insurance (UI) wages are reported through Universal Music Group, Fishers, Indiana, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 1, 2009, through October 22, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.”

Signed in Washington, DC, January 19, 2011.

General Motors Company Formerly Known as General Motors Corporation Technical Center Including On-Site Leased Workers From Aerotek, Bartech Group, CDI Professional Services, EDS/HP Enterprise Services, Engineering Labs, Inc., Global Technology Associates Limited, G-Tech Professional Staffing, Inc., Jefferson Wells, Kelly Services, Inc., Optimal, Inc., Populus Group, RCO Engineering, Inc., Tek Systems, Modern Engineering/Professional Services and General Physics Corporation Excluding Workers of the Global Purchasing and Supply Chain Division, Warren, MI; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on April 30, 2010, applicable to workers of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Technical Center, including on-site leased workers from Aerotek, Bartech Group, EDI Professional Services, EDS/HP Enterprise Services, Engineering Labs, Inc., Global Technology Associates Limited, G-Tech Professional Staffing, Inc., Jefferson Wells, Kelly Services, Inc., Optimal, Inc., Populus Group, RCO Engineering, Inc., and Tek Systems, excluding workers of the Global Purchasing and Supply Chain Division, Warren, Michigan. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 28, 2010 (75 FR 30070). The notice was amended on December 6, 2010 to include on-site leased workers from Modern Engineering/Professional Services. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 13, 2010 (75 FR 77666).

At the request of the state, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the engineering and other technical support of automotive production at affiliated plants.

The company reports that workers leased from General Physics Corporation were employed on-site at the Warren, Michigan location of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Technical Center. The Department has determined that on-site workers from General Physics Corporation were sufficiently under the control of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Technical Center to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from General Physics Corporation working on-site at the Warren, Michigan location of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Technical Center.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-72,121 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Technical Center, including on-site leased workers from Aerotek, Bartech Group, CDI Professional Services, EDS/HP Enterprise Services, Engineering Labs, Inc., Global Technology Associates Limited, G-Tech Professional Staffing, Inc., Jefferson Wells, Kelly Services, Inc., Optimal, Inc., Populus Group, RCO Engineering, Inc., Tek Systems, Modern Engineering/Professional Services, and General Physics Corporation, excluding workers of the Global Purchasing and Supply Chain Division, Warren, Michigan, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 14, 2008, through April 30, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.
