

would require a DCO to collect initial margin on a gross basis for each clearing member's customer account equal to the sum of the initial margin amounts that would be required by the DCO for each individual customer within that account if each individual customer were a clearing member. A DCO would not be permitted to net positions of different customers against one another, but it could collect initial margin for its clearing members' house accounts on a net basis.⁷

Related to this customer gross margin requirement, the preamble further explained as follows, that proposed § 39.19(c)(1)(iv) would require DCOs to report end-of-day positions for each clearing member, by customer origin and house origin, and for customer origin, separately, the gross positions of each beneficial owner:

The Commission recently proposed a new § 39.19(c)(1)(iv) under which a DCO would be required, on a daily basis, to report the end-of-day positions for each clearing member, by origin. [footnote reference to 75 FR at 78195] In connection with the proposed § 39.13(g)(8)(i) requirement for DCOs to collect initial margin for customer accounts on a gross basis, the Commission is proposing to amend proposed § 39.19(c)(1)(iv) to additionally require a DCO, for the customer origin, to report the gross positions of each beneficial owner.⁸

It has come to the attention of the Commission that there was an omission in the Federal Register publication of the proposed rule text setting forth the requirement for end-of-day reporting of customer positions by the gross positions of each beneficial owner. The text of proposed § 39.19(c)(1)(iv), which read "End-of-day positions for each clearing member, by customer origin and house origin" should have read, "End-of-day positions for each clearing member, by customer origin and house origin; and for customer origin, separately, the gross positions of each beneficial owner."

In order to provide an adequate opportunity for comment on this reporting requirement, the Commission has determined to extend the comment period for proposed § 39.19(c)(1)(iv), as corrected elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register, until April 25, 2011.

Issued in Washington, DC, on March 17, 2011, by the Commission.

David A. Stawick,
Secretary of the Commission.
