DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Industry and Security

Action Affecting Export Privileges; Credit International Trading Co. Ltd; In the Matter of: Credit International Trading Co, Ltd (11th Institute), No. 2 Zhong Guan Cun Nan Street, Haidian District, Beijing 100039, People's Republic of China and No 9A Dongtucheng Road, Heping Street, Chaoyang District, Beijing, People's Republic of China;

Order Making Order Denying Export Privileges of Ruo Ling Wang Applicable to Related Person Credit International Trading Company

Pursuant to Sections 766.25(h) and 766.23 of the Export Administration Regulations¹ ("EAR"), the Bureau of Industry and Security ("BIS"), U.S. Department of Commerce, through its

Office of Export Enforcement ("OEE"), has requested that I make the Denial Order that was imposed against the individual Ruo Ling Wang ("Wang") on April 18, 2006 (71 Fed. Reg. 23897, April 25, 2006) applicable to Credit International Trading Co, Ltd (11th Institute), ("Credit International"), with addresses at: No. 2 Zhong Guan Cun Nan Street, Haidian District, Beijing 100039, People's Republic of China, and No 9A Dongtucheng Road, Heping Street, Chaoyang District, Beijing, People's Republic of China, (hereinafter, the "Related Person"), as a person related to Wang.

Section 766.23 of the EAR provides that "[i]n order to prevent evasion, certain types of orders under this part may be made applicable not only to the respondent, but also to other persons then or thereafter related to the respondent by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business. Orders that may be made applicable to related persons include those that deny or affect export privileges * * *." 15 CFR 766.23(a).

On April 18, 2006, then Director of Office of Exporter Services issued an Order pursuant to Section 11(h) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (currently codified at 50 U.S.C. app. §§ 2401-2420 (2000)) ("Act")² and Section 766.25 of the EAR denying the export privileges under the Regulations of Wang for 10 years. The Order was based on Wang's conviction of violating the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq. (2000)) ("IEEPA"). Wang was convicted of knowingly and willfully making a false statement and concealing a material fact from the Bureau of Industry Security ("BIS") and the former U.S. Customs Service.

BIS has presented evidence that indicates that Credit International is related to Wang by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business, and that it is necessary to add this entity to the Wang Denial Order in order to avoid evasion of that Order. The basis for naming Credit International to the Wang Denial Order is that Wang acting for, as, or on behalf of Credit International, is actively involved in attempting to procure items for export from the United States.

As provided in Section 766.23 of the EAR, I gave notice to Credit International that its export privileges under the EAR could be denied for up to 10 years due to its relationship with Wang and that BIS believes naming Credit International as a related party to Wang would be necessary to prevent evasion of a denial order imposed against Wang. In providing such notice, I gave Credit International an opportunity to oppose its addition to the Wang Denial Order as a related party. Having received no submission, I have decided, following consultations with BIS's Office of Export Enforcement, including its Director, to name Credit International as a Related Person to the Wang Denial Order, thereby denying Credit International export privileges for 10 years from the date of Wang's conviction.

I have also decided to revoke all licenses issued pursuant to the Act or EAR in which Credit International had an interest at the time of Wang's conviction. The 10-year denial period will end on May 2, 2015.

Accordingly, it is hereby

Ordered

First, that having been provided notice and opportunity for comment as provided in Sections 766.25 and 766.23 of the Export Administration Regulations (the "Regulations"), the following entity, Credit International Trading Co., Ltd. (11th Institute) ("Credit International"), with last known addresses at No. 2 Zhong Guan Cun Nan Street, Haidian District, Beijing 100039, People's Republic of China, and No 9A Dongtucheng Road, Heping Street, Chaoyang District, Beijing, People's Republic of China has been determined to be related to Wang by affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility in the conduct of trade or related services, and it has been deemed necessary to make the Order denying the export privileges of Wang applicable to Credit International in order to prevent evasion of the Wang Denial Order.

Second, that the denial of export privileges described in the Wang Denial Order, which was published in the Federal Register on April 25, 2006 at 71 FR 23896, shall be made applicable to Credit International until its expiration on May 2, 2015, as follows:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Case History

The following events have occurred since the publication of the Department of Commerce's ("Department") notice of initiation in the Federal Register. See Multilayered Wood Flooring from the People's Republic of China: Initiation of Countervailing Duty Investigation, 75 FR 70719 (November 18, 2010) ("Initiation Notice"), and the accompanying Initiation Checklist.

On November 18, 2010, the Department released the U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") data for the instant investigation under administrative protective order ("APO") to all parties with APO access. See Memorandum to File from Matthew Jordan, International Trade Compliance Analyst, "Release of Customs and Border Protection Entry Data to Interested Parties for Comment" (November 18, 2010) at Attachment 1. This memorandum is on file in the Department's Central Records Unit ("CRU") in Room 7046 of the main Department building. We received comments on this CBP data from Fine Furniture (Shanghai) Ltd. ("Fine Furniture") on November 19, 2010, and Dun Hua City Jisen Wood Industry Co., Ltd. and Chinafloors Timber (China) Co., Ltd. on November 24, 2010. We received comments from Shanghai Lizhong Wood Product Co., Ltd. and the Coalition for American Hardwood Parity (Anderson Hardwood Floors, LLC; Award Hardwood Floors; Baker's Creek Wood Floors, Inc.; From the Forest; Howell Hardwood Flooring; Mannington Mills, Inc.; Nydree Flooring; Shaw Industries Group, Inc.) (collectively, "Petitioner") on November 26, 2010.

In their comments, the interested parties unanimously requested that the Department forgo using CBP data for its selection of mandatory respondents. Instead, the parties stated, the Department should issue quantity and value ("Q&V") questionnaires to the companies identified by Petitioner as potential producers/exporters of the subject merchandise. After examining the CBP data, the Department agreed that the data did not provide a basis for selecting respondents and determined it was necessary to issue Q&Vs.

On December 2, 2010, and December 3, 2010, the Department issued Q&Vs to the 174 companies listed in the Petition, plus two additional companies that identified themselves via requests for
