

Securities and Exchange Commission

§ 250.87

§ 250.85 Service, sales, and construction by registered holding companies.

Subject to compliance with the provisions of such rules, regulations, or orders of the Commission as may be applicable (including § 250.90), a registered holding company may perform services or construction for, or sell goods to, an associate company thereof, which is a public utility company, a mutual service company, or a company engaged in the business of performing services or construction for, or selling goods to, associate public utility companies, and such transaction shall be exempt from the provisions of section 13(a) of the Act (49 Stat. 825; 15 U.S.C. 79m), if:

(a) Such holding company is principally engaged in the business of an operating electric or gas utility company, or any business or businesses other than that of selling goods to associate companies, that of performing services or construction, that of a holding company or fiscal or financial agency of a holding company, or that of an investment company or investment trust; and, incidentally to such business, performs such services or construction or sells such goods; or

(b) Such services, construction, or goods are reasonably required by such associate to meet a break-down or other emergency, and the parties believe in good faith that, under the conditions then existing, such transaction will be to the advantage of such associate; or

(c) Such transaction consists of performance of a contract made before August 26, 1935, for the construction of a specific project, building, or unit, pursuant to which contract substantial expenses were incurred before August 26, 1935; or

(d) Such transaction consists of the sale, at not more than cost less depreciation, of goods purchased by such holding company for its own use; or

(e) Such transaction consists of a sale of goods which is merely incidental to a sale of an entire business or a substantial portion thereof, or to a sale of assets other than goods; or

(f) Such transaction, although not exempted by any of the foregoing paragraphs of this section, is not in the regular course of business of such holding company and does not involve a cost to the associate of more than $2,500, including the cost of such associate of all previous transactions with such holding company consummated in the same fiscal year which were exempted only by this paragraph.

§ 250.86 Prohibition of unauthorized transactions by subsidiaries.

Except as authorized by rule, regulation, or order of the Commission, no subsidiary company (including a mutual service company) of a registered holding company shall—whether or not pursuant to a contract heretofore or hereafter entered into—perform any service or construction for, or sell any goods to, any associate company thereof, or enter into any contract to do so.

§ 250.87 Subsidiaries authorized to perform services or construction or to sell goods.

(a) Subject to compliance with the provisions of such rules, regulations, or orders of the Commission as may be applicable (including § 250.90), the following classes of subsidiary companies of registered holding companies may perform services or construction for, or sell goods to, associate companies thereof:

(1) An approved mutual service company.

(2) A subsidiary company whose organization and conduct of business the Commission has found, pursuant to § 250.88, sufficient to meet the requirements of section 13(b) of the Act.

(3) A subsidiary company which is principally engaged in the business of an operating electric or gas utility company, or any business or businesses other than that of selling goods to associate companies, that of performing services or construction, that of a holding company of fiscal or financing agency of a holding company, or that of an investment company or investment trust; and which, incidentally to such business, performs such services or construction or sells such goods.

(b) Any subsidiary of a registered holding company, whether or not it is a company specified in paragraph (a) (1), (2), or (3) of this section, may perform services or construction for; or sell goods to, an associate company thereof if:

§ 250.88

17 CFR Ch. II (4-1-01 Edition)

(1) Such associate company is not an electric or gas utility company and is principally engaged in a business or businesses other than that of a holding company or fiscal or financing agency of a holding company, or that of an investment company or investment trust; or

(2) Such services, construction, or goods are reasonably required by such associate to meet a break-down or other emergency, and the parties believe in good faith that, under the conditions then existing, such transaction will be to the advantage of such associate; or

(3) Such transaction consists of performance of a contract made before August 26, 1935, for the construction of a specific project, building, or unit, pursuant to which contract substantial expenses were incurred before August 26, 1935; or

(4) Such transaction consists of the sale, at not more than cost less depreciation, of goods purchased by such subsidiary company for its own use; or

(5) Such transaction consists of a sale of goods which is merely incidental to a sale of an entire business or a substantial portion thereof, or to a sale of assets other than goods; or

(6) Such transaction consists of a sale of goods produced by the seller.

(c) This section shall not be applicable to a subsidiary which is itself a registered holding company. Such a company may perform services or construction for, or sell goods to, associate companies as provided in § 250.85.

§ 250.88 Approval of mutual service companies; organization and conduct of business of subsidiary service companies.

(a) Application for approval of a company as a mutual service company shall be filed by the company, or the persons proposing to organize it, with the Commission on Form U-13-1, as specified in the instructions for that form. The Commission will not approve any company as a mutual service company unless it finds that the company is so organized as to capitalization, ownership by, and representation of, member companies, costs, revenues, and the sharing thereof, and other matters as reasonably to insure the efficient and economical performance of services or construction or sale of goods by the company for or to its member companies, at cost fairly and equitably allocated among them and at a reasonable saving over the cost of comparable services or construction performed or goods sold by independent persons.

(b) A finding by the Commission that a subsidiary company of a registered holding company (other than a mutual service company) is so organized and conducted or to be conducted, as to meet the requirements of section 13(b) of the Act (49 Stat. 825; 15 U.S.C. 79m) with respect to reasonable assurance of efficient and economical performance of services or construction or sale of goods for the benefit of associate companies, at cost fairly and equitably allocated among them (or as permitted by § 250.90), will be made only pursuant to a declaration filed with the Commission on Form U-13-1, as specified in the instructions for that form, by such company or the persons proposing to organize it.

(c) Within a reasonable time after the filing of an application for approval of a mutual service company, the Commission shall, after notice and opportunity for hearing, enter an order granting or refusing approval or otherwise disposing of the application.

(d) Within a reasonable time after the filing of a declaration with respect to the organization and conduct of business of a subsidiary service company, the Commission shall, after notice and opportunity for hearing, enter an order finding that the company's organization and conduct of business meet the requirements of section 13(b) of the Act, or refusing so to find, or otherwise disposing of the declaration.

(e) Unless the Commission shall otherwise by order provide, the approval of a mutual service company, or the finding that a subsidiary service company's organization and conduct of business are sufficient to meet the requirements of section 13(b) of the Act, shall continue in effect until the Commission, after notice and opportunity for hearing, shall find that the conditions which led to such approval or finding
