

§ 1100.9

himself in a manner which is beyond reproach.

(8) Recognize his responsibility for taking an active part in the Section affairs.

(9) Uphold with integrity the public trust involved in the position to which assigned.

(c) Off-the-job conduct. While the Section does not desire to interfere unnecessarily in the private lives of its employees, it does expect them to conduct themselves at all times in a manner which will not reflect unfavorably upon the Federal Government as their employer.

§ 1100.9 Conflict of interest.

(a) All Section employees are bound to refrain from any private business or professional activity which would place them in a position where there is a conflict between their private interests and the public interests of the United States. Even though a technical conflict of interest may not exist, employees must avoid the appearance of such a conflict from a public confidence point of view. (chapter 11 of title 18 of the U.S. Code, enacted by Pub. L. 878-849, effective January 21, 1963, constitutes the basic conflict of interest statutes.)

§ 1100.10 Outside employment.

(a) Section employees will not engage in outside employment or other outside activities, with or without compensation, which—

(1) Interferes with the performance of their Government duties;

(2) May reasonably be expected to bring discredit upon the Section or the Government; or

(3) Appears to involve a conflict of interest.

(b) All employees are prohibited from using their titles or positions in connection with any commercial enterprise or in endorsing any commercial product or venture.

(c) Section employees engaged in activities related to procurement will not accept part-time off-duty employment with any person that is a contractor with the Government. This prohibition applies regardless of the nature of the services to be performed. (e.g., Professional employees of the Section such as attorneys, engineers, and accountants will not represent or advise a Government contractor concerning either the commercial or Government pursuits of such person; nor will such personnel render services in behalf of the officers of contractors with whom they transact business on behalf of the Government, even though such services might be performed in connection with the personal affairs of such officers of the contractors.)

22 CFR Ch. XI (4-1-01 Edition)

§ 1100.11 Indebtedness.

(a) An employee shall pay each just financial obligation in a proper and timely manner, especially one imposed by law, such as Federal, State, or local taxes. For the purpose of this paragraph a 'just financial obligation' means one acknowledged by the employee, imposed by law, or reduced to judgment by a court.

(b) When an employee has a levy placed against his salary for failure to pay an indebtedness for Federal income taxes, he shall be issued a written reprimand stating that failure to make satisfactory arrangements regarding future tax liabilities will be grounds for removal.

(c) When an employee is the subject of a letter of complaint stating that he has not paid his State or local taxes and has failed to make satisfactory arrangements regarding the debt, he shall be interviewed by the Personnel Director, or his designated representative in field offices. In this interview he shall be instructed to make satisfactory arrangements for payment of his debt immediately and informed that failure to do so will be grounds for removal.

(d) When an employee is the subject of a letter of complaint regarding any other kind of indebtedness to a unit of government, Federal, State, or local, the procedure prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section, shall be observed.

(e) When a creditor who holds a legal judgment against an employee requests that the Section assist in collecting the debt, the employee shall be interviewed by the Personnel Director, or his designated representative in field offices, as appropriate. In this interview he shall be instructed to pay the
