

§ 505.11

conditions are authorized under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552a(b). These conditions are:

(1) Disclosure within the Board. This condition is based upon a “need-to-know” concept which recognizes that Board personnel may require access to discharge their duties.

(2) Disclosure to the public. No consent by an individual is necessary if the record is required to be released under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. 552. The record may be exempt, however, under one of the nine exemptions of the FOIA.

(3) Disclosure for a routine use. No consent by an individual is necessary if the condition is necessary for a “routine use” as defined in § 505.2(g). Information may also be released to other government agencies which have statutory or other lawful authority to maintain such information. (See Appendix I—Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses).

(4) Disclosure to the Bureau of the Census. For purposes of planning or carrying out a census or survey or related activity. Title 13 U.S.C. Section 8 limits the uses which may be made of these records and also makes them immune from compulsory disclosure.

(5) Disclosure for statistical research and reporting. The Board will provide the statistical information requested only after all names and personal identifiers have been deleted from the records.

(6) Disclosure to the National Archives. For the preservation of records of historical value, pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2103.

(7) Disclosure for law enforcement purposes. Upon receipt of a written request by another Federal agency or a state or local government describing the law enforcement purpose for which a record is required, and specifying the particular record. Blanket requests for all records pertaining to an individual are not permitted under the Privacy Act.

(8) Disclosure under emergency circumstances. For the safety or health of an individual (e.g., medical records on a patient undergoing emergency treatment).

(9) Disclosure to the Congress. For matters within the jurisdiction of any House or Senate committee or subcommittee, and/or joint committee or subcommittee, pursuant to a written request from the Chairman of the committee or subcommittee.

22 CFR Ch. V (4-1-01 Edition)

(10) Disclosure to the General Accounting Office (GAO). For matters within the jurisdiction of the duties of the GAO’s Comptroller General.

(11) Disclosure pursuant to court order. Pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction. This does not include a subpoena for records requested by counsel and issued by a clerk of court.

§ 505.11 Fees.

(a) The first copy of any Board record about an individual will be provided free of charge. A fee of $0.15 per page will be charged for any additional copies requested by the individual.

(b) Checks or money orders should be made payable to the United States Treasurer and mailed to the Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act Unit, Office of the General Counsel, 301 4th Street, SW, Washington, DC 20547. The Board will not accept cash.

§ 505.12 Civil remedies and criminal penalties.

(a) Grounds for court action. An individual will have a remedy in the Federal District Courts under the following circumstances:

(1) Denial of access. Individuals may challenge an Board decision to deny them access to records to which they consider themselves entitled.

(2) Refusal to amend a record. Under conditions prescribed in 5 U.S.C. 552a(g), an individual may seek judicial review of the Board’s refusal to amend a record.

(3) Failure to maintain a record accurately. An individual may bring suit against the Board for any alleged intentional and willful failure to maintain a record accurately, if it can be shown that the individual was subjected to an adverse action resulting in the denial of a right, benefit, entitlement or employment the individual could reasonably have expected to be granted if the record had not been deficient.

(4) Other failures to comply with the Act. An individual may bring an action for any alleged failure by the Board to comply with the requirements of the Act or failure to comply with any rule published by the Board to implement the Act provided it can be shown that:

Broadcasting Board of Governors

§ 505.14

(i) The action was intentional or willful;

(ii) The Board's action adversely affected the individual; and

(iii) The adverse action was caused by the Board's actions.

(b) Jurisdiction and time limits. (1) Action may be brought in the district court for the jurisdiction in which the individual resides or has a place of residence or business, or in which the Board records are situated, or in the District of Columbia.

(2) The statute of limitations is two years from the date upon which the cause of action arises, except for cases in which the Board has materially and willfully misrepresented any information requested to be disclosed and when such misrepresentation is material to the liability of Board. In such cases the statute of limitations is two years from the date of discovery by the individual of the misrepresentation.

(3) A suit may not be brought on the basis of injury which may have occurred as a result of the Board's disclosure of a record prior to September 27, 1975.

(c) Criminal penalties—(1) Unauthorized disclosure. It is a criminal violation of the provisions of the Act for any officer or employee of the Board knowingly and willfully to disclose a record in any manner to any person or agency not entitled to receive it, for failure to meet the conditions of disclosure enumerated in 5 U.S.C. 552a(b), or without the written consent or at the request of the individual to whom the record pertains. Any officer or employee of the Board found guilty of such misconduct shall be fined not more than $5,000.

(2) Failure to publish a public notice. It is a criminal violation of the Act to willfully maintain a system of records and not to publish the prescribed public notice. Any officer or employee of the Board found guilty of such misconduct shall be fined not more than $5,000.

(3) Obtaining records under false pretenses. The Act makes it a criminal offense to knowingly and willfully request or gain access to a record about an individual under false pretenses. Any person found guilty of such an offense may be fined not more than $5,000.

§ 505.13 General exemptions (Subsection (j)).

(a) General exemptions are available for systems of records which are maintained by the Central Intelligence Agency (Subsection (j)(1)), or maintained by an agency which performs as its principal function any activity pertaining to the enforcement of the criminal laws (Subsection (j)(2)).

(b) The Act does not permit general exemption of records compiled primarily for a noncriminal purpose, even though there are some quasi-criminal aspects to the investigation and even though the records are in a system of records to which the general exemption applies.

§ 505.14 Specific exemptions (Subsection (k)).

The specific exemptions focus more on the nature of the records in the systems of records than on the Board. The following categories of records may be exempt from disclosure:

(a) Subsection (k)(1). Records which are specifically authorized under criteria established under an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy, and which are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive Order;

(b) Subsection (k)(2). Investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes (other than material within the scope of subsection (j)(2) as discussed in § 505.13(a)). If any individual is denied any right, privilege, or benefit for which she/he would otherwise be eligible, as a result of the maintenance of such material, the material shall be provided to the individual, unless disclosure of the material would reveal the identify of a source who has been pledged confidentiality;

(c) Subsection (k)(3). Records maintained in connection with protection of the President and other VIPs accorded special protection by statute;

(d) Subsection (k)(4). Records required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
