Subpart C—Project-Based Accounting

SOURCE: 57 FR 61231, Dec. 23, 1992, unless otherwise noted.

§ 990.301 Applicability.

(a) The provisions of this subpart C are applicable to all PHAs that receive operating subsidies pursuant to section 9 of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 (the Act), both PFS-eligible PHAs and PHAs outside the 48 adjacent states for which operating subsidy eligibility is not calculated in accordance with the PFS.

(b) PHAs that own and operate 250 or more dwelling rental units under title I of the Act, exclusive of section 8 units, are required to develop and maintain project-based accounting systems consistent with § 990.310. Where a portion of a PHA's rental inventory is separately managed (by a resident management corporation, for example), the 250-unit threshold shall apply to the total number of PHA-owned dwelling rental units, including those separately managed.

(c) PHAs that do not receive operating subsidies or that have fewer than 250 rental units may, but are not required to, develop and use project-based accounting systems consistent with the specifications of this subpart.

§ 990.305 Definitions.

Cost Center. A set of units, activities, programs, or staff that are grouped by a PHA for purposes of management, financial monitoring, and analysis. Cost centers can be delineated by administrative departments or divisions within a PHA, by office locations, by individual projects or clusters or communities of projects that consist of one or more contiguous buildings, an area of contiguous row houses, or scattered-site buildings.

Project. A building or set of buildings identifiable as a development project under a HUD-assigned project number.

§ 990.310 Project-based accounting.

(a) PHAs identified in § 990.301(b) shall develop and maintain a system of accounting for operating income and operating costs for each project or operating cost center in a manner capable of generating information to meet HUD consolidated reporting requirements.

(b) Operating income and cost information to be accounted for at a project or cost center level shall include at least rental income and the administrative costs, utilities costs, maintenance costs, repair costs, and such other income and costs identified by the PHA as project-specific for management purposes. The minimum income and expense distribution requirements for project-based accounting information include:

(1) Project-specific operating income credited to a specific project or cost center which shall include, at a minimum, rental income and excess utilities income; and

(2) Project-specific operating expense to be charged to a specific project or cost center level which shall include, at a minimum, utilities expense and direct maintenance (material and labor) expense, in addition to any other operating expenses in the 4000 series of accounts which are identified by the PHA as project-specific for management purposes (for example, tenant services or protective services personnel assigned to a specific project).

(c) Indirect operating income and indirect operating expenses that are not project-specific are not required to be accounted for at, or allocated to, a project or cost center level. Indirect income and expense that is not required to be allocated to the project or cost center level includes non-project-specific income and expense, including PHA central office overhead expense,
