contributions must be reported by the employing agency for investment in the G Fund.

(d) The employing agency must pay any lost earnings on TSP contributions derived from back pay awards or other retroactive pay adjustments that are required to be paid under 5 CFR Part 1606.

(e) If a participant has withdrawn his or her TSP account other than by purchasing an annuity, and the separation from Government employment upon which the withdrawal was based is reversed, resulting in reinstatement of the participant without a break in service, then the participant will have the option, which must be exercised by notice to the Board within 90 days of reinstatement, to restore to his or her TSP account the amount withdrawn. The right to restore the withdrawn funds will expire if the notice is not provided to the Board within 90 days of reinstatement. No earnings will be paid on any restored funds.

§ 1605.5 Misclassification of retirement coverage.

(a) If a CSRS participant is misclassified by an employing agency as a FERS participant, when the misclassification is corrected—

(1) The employing agency must, under §1605.3, remove all employee contributions that exceeded 5% of basic pay for the pay period(s) involved, and refund to the participant the amount contributed. In addition, the employing agency must submit negative adjustment records to remove all employer contributions made to the participant's account during the period of misclassification that have been in the account for less than one year. The participant may choose whether or not he or she wishes to have the remainder of the employee contributions made during the period of misclassification removed from his or her account and refunded to the participant; and

(2) If the participant's account at any time contains no employer contributions that have been in the account for less than one year, the TSP record-keeper will remove from the account any employer contributions that have been in the account for one year or more (and associated earnings), and will use such amounts to offset TSP administrative expenses.

(b) If a FERS participant is misclassified as a CSRS participant, when the misclassification is corrected he or she may not elect to have the contributions made while classified as CSRS removed from his or her account. The employing agency must make in a lump sum payment, pursuant to §1605.2(b)(1), the appropriate agency automatic (1%) contributions and agency matching contributions on the employee contributions that were made while the participant was misclassified as CSRS. The participant may also elect to make, under §1605.2(c), additional contributions that he or she would have been eligible to make as a FERS participant during the period of misclassification. If such contributions are made, the employing agency must also submit any associated agency matching contributions and any lost earnings records required under 5 CFR Part 1606.

§ 1605.6 Procedures for claims against employing agencies; time limitations.

(a) Agency procedures. Each employing agency must establish procedures for participants to submit claims for correction under this subpart. Each employing agency's procedures must include the following:

(1) The employing agency will provide the participant with a decision on any claim within 30 days of receipt of the claim unless the employing agency provides the participant with good cause for requiring a longer period to decide the claim. Any decision to deny a claim in whole or in part must be in writing and must include the reasons for the denial (including citations to any applicable statutes, regulations or procedures), a description of any additional material that would enable the participant to perfect his or her claim, and a statement of the steps to be taken to appeal the denial.

(2) The employing agency must permit a participant at least 30 days to appeal the employing agency's denial of all or any part of his or her claim for
