

Office of Personnel Management

§ 334.104

Federal agency means an Executive agency, military department, a court of the United States, the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, the Library of Congress, the Botanic Garden, the Government Printing Office, the Congressional Budget Office, the United States Postal Service, the Postal Rate Commission, the Office of the Architect of the Capitol, the Office of Technology Assessment, and such other similar agencies of the legislative and judicial branches as determined appropriate by the Office of Personnel Management;

Institution of higher education means a domestic, accredited public or private 4-year college or university, or a technical or junior college;

Indian tribal government refers to any Indian tribe, band, nation, or other organized group or community, including any Alaska Native village as defined in the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (85 Stat. 668) which is recognized as eligible for the special programs and services provided by the United States to Indians because of their status as Indians and includes any tribal organization as defined in section 4(c) of the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (Pub. L. 93-638, S. 105);

Local government means any political subdivision, instrumentality, or authority of a State or States; and any general or special purpose agency of such a political subdivision, instrumentality, or authority;

Other organization means a national, regional, Statewide, areawide, or metropolitan organization representing member State or local governments; an association of State or local public officials; or a nonprofit organization which has as one of its principal functions the offering of professional advisory, research, education, or development services, or related services to governments or universities concerned with public management; and

State means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and a territory or possession of the United States; and an instrumentality or authority of a State or States; and a Federal-State authority or instrumentality.

334.103 Approval of instrumentalities or authorities of State and local governments and "other organizations".

(a) Organizations interested in participating in the mobility program as an instrumentality or authority of a State or local government or as an "other organization" as set out in this part must have their eligibility certified by the Federal agency with which they are entering into an assignment.

(b) Written requests for certification should include a copy of the organization's:

- (1) Articles of incorporation;
- (2) Bylaws;
- (3) Internal Revenue Service non-profit statement; and
- (4) Any other information which indicates that the organization has as a principal function the offering of professional advisory, research, educational, or development services, or related services to governments or universities concerned with public management.

(c) Federally funded research and development centers which appear on a master list maintained by the National Science Foundation are eligible to enter into mobility agreements.

(d) An organization denied certification by an agency may request reconsideration by the Office of Personnel Management.

[62 FR 23127, Apr. 29, 1997]

§ 334.104 Length of assignment.

(a) An assignment may be made for up to 2 years and may be extended by the head of a Federal agency, or his or her designee, for up to 2 more years, given the concurrence of the other parties to the agreement.

(b) A Federal agency may not send on assignment an employee who has served on mobility assignments for more than a total of 6 years during his or her Federal career. This applies only to Federal employees. The Office of Personnel Management may waive this provision upon the written request of the agency head, or his or her designee.