promotion to a position other than that of administrative law judge.

[52 FR 34203, Sept. 10, 1987, as amended at 56 FR 6209, Feb. 14, 1991]

§ 930.203 Examination.

(a) Periodic open competition. Applicants for entrance into the competitive service as administrative law judges will be examined periodically in open competition as announced by OPM. Applications received by OPM during such periods of open competition will be reviewed as a group.

(b) Minimum qualifications. All applicants must demonstrate in their written applications and supporting materials that they meet the qualifying experience requirements in OPM Examination Announcement No. 318.

(c) Supplemental qualifications. Applicants who meet minimum qualification requirements will be assigned a score on the supplemental qualifications statement described in the examination announcement.

(d) Participation in examination procedures. Applicants who meet minimum qualification requirements and are assigned a score on the supplemental qualifications statement become eligible to compete for a final rating through participating in three additional examination procedures described in the examination announcement:

- (1) A written demonstration;
- (2) A panel interview; and
- (3) A personal reference inquiry.

(e) Final rating. Applicants who complete the examination procedures described in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section will be assigned a final numerical rating based on a weighted sum of the scores for each of the four parts, transmuted to a scale of 0 to 100, with 70 required to pass. For applicants entitled thereto, the final passing score will be augmented by 5 or 10 veteran preference points.

(f) Preparation of certificates. As agencies request certificates of applicants from registers to consider in filling vacant administrative law judge positions in various geographic areas, all applicants who are eligible and available for those positions will be ranked to identify the best qualified applicants to be certified. Eligible applicants who have completed the final rating process will be ranked on the basis of assigned final ratings, augmented by veteran preference points if applicable. At least three eligible applicants will be certified to the employing agency for consideration for each vacancy.

(g) Appeal of rating. Applicants who obtain an ineligible rating or applicants who are dissatisfied with their final rating may appeal the rating to the Administrative Law Judge Rating Appeals Panel, Office of Personnel Management, Washington, DC 20415, within 30 days after the date of final action by the Office of Administrative Law Judges or such later time as may be allowed by the Panel.

§ 930.203a Appointment.

(a) Prior approval. An agency may make an appointment to an administrative law judge position only with the prior approval of OPM, except when it makes its selection from a certificate of eligibles furnished by OPM. When requesting OPM approval of an appointment to an administrative law judge position or the issuance of a certificate of eligibles, the requesting agency must demonstrate that its hearing workload requires the appointment of an additional administrative law judge(s) to get necessary work done. An appointment is subject to investigation in accordance with §§ 731.201 through 731.303 of this chapter and subject to security clearance by the agency.

(b) Probationary and career-conditional periods. The requirement of a probationary and career-conditional period before absolute appointment does not apply to an appointment to an administrative law judge position.

(c) Appointment of incumbents of newly classified administrative law judge positions. An agency may appoint as an administrative law judge an employee who is serving in a position which is classified as an administrative law judge position on the basis of legislation, Executive order, or decision of a court, if—
