

business on April 9, 1999, in the county FSA office serving the county where the producer's farm is located for administrative purposes.

(b) Applications for benefits under Subpart C, the 1998 Crop Loss Disaster Assistance Program Multi-year Losses, shall be filed before the close of business on April 9, 1999, with the county FSA office designated as the producer's control county.

(c) The Deputy Administrator may grant general exceptions to these deadlines for filing applications.

§ 1477.106 Limitations on payments and other benefits.

(a) A producer may receive disaster benefits under either subpart B or C, but not both.

(b) A producer qualifying for disaster benefits under both subparts B or C, may receive whichever amount is greater as calculated according to this part.

(c) Payments will not be made under this subpart for grazing losses. Further, the Deputy Administrator may divide crops based on loss susceptibility, yield, and other factors.

(d) No person shall receive more than a total of $80,000 in disaster benefits under this part. No person shall receive more than $25,000 in disaster benefits under this part for tree losses.

(e) No person shall receive disaster benefits under this part in an amount that exceeds the value of the expected production for the relevant period as determined by CCC.

(f) A person who has a gross revenue in excess of $2.5 million for the 1997 tax year shall not be eligible to receive disaster benefits under this part. If the person does not have a 1997 tax year because the entities were dissolved in a prior year, the last tax year for the person will be used. Gross revenue includes the total income and total gross receipts of the person, before any reductions. Gross revenue shall not be adjusted, amended, discounted, netted or modified for any reason. No deductions for costs, expenses or pass-through funds will be deducted from any calculation of gross revenue. For making this determination, gross revenue means the total gross receipts received from farming or ranching operations if the person receives more than 50 percent of such person's gross income from farming or ranching; or the total gross receipts received from all sources if the person receives 50 percent or less of such person's gross receipts from farming and ranching.

(g) Payment eligibility under this part shall be in addition to whatever eligibility the producer may have to other payments including but not limited to:

(1) Payments under the noninsured crop disaster assistance program established under the Agricultural Market Transition Act (7 U.S.C. 7333);

(2) Crop insurance indemnities provided under the Federal Crop Insurance Act (7 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.);

(3) Emergency loans made available under subtitle C of the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act (7 U.S.C. 1961 et seq.);

(4) Payments received by a person for participation in a Production Flexibility Contract authorized under Title 1 of the Agricultural Market Transition Act (7 U.S.C. 7211 et seq.); and

(5) Market Loss Assistance payments made under § 1111 of the 1999 Act.

(h) In the event the total amount of applications for disaster benefits under this part exceeds the available funds, payments shall be reduced by a uniform national percentage. Such reductions shall be applied before any determination of limits on compensation due to multiple USDA benefits and after the imposition of applicable payment limitation and gross revenues caps.

§ 1477.107 Crop insurance premium discounts.

(a) A crop insurance premium discount is available to all producers who have limited or additional coverage crop insurance policies for the 1999 crop year (for the 2000 crop year for citrus fruit, Avocados in California, and Macadamia Nuts in Hawaii) as follows:

(1) Producers of crops that have sales closing dates for the 1999 crop year (2000 crop year for citrus fruit, avocados in California, and macadamia nuts in Hawaii) on or after July 31, 1998, and on or before February 15, 1999, must have by the following dates purchased
