

the provisions of this paragraph applies only to the transfer of title resulting from death of the borrower; it does not apply to any subsequent transfer of title by the inheritor(s) except by devise, descent, or operation of law upon the death of the inheritors or sale of interests among inheritors to consolidate title. Any other subsequent transfer of title will be treated as a sale and is subject to the requirements of § 1951.463 of this subpart.

(d) Assumption by a person, other than the spouse, who is not liable for the FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354 loan. A person other than the deceased borrower's spouse who wishes to assume the loan for the benefit of persons who were dependent on the deceased borrower at the time of death, without receiving title to the property, may do so in accordance with § 1951.463(d)(1) of this subpart provided:

(1) The residence will continue to be occupied by one or more persons who were dependent on the borrower at the time of death; and

(2) There is reasonable prospect for orderly repayment of the loan and other obligations of the loan will be met.

§ 1951.463 Transfer of security and assumption of indebtedness.

When a borrower proposes to sell security property, assumption of the indebtedness may be approved on program or NP terms, as applicable, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section. Assumptions under paragraphs (b)(2), (b)(3), (b)(4), (b)(5) and (d) of this section only are authorized on existing terms. When security property is sold (or title is otherwise conveyed), whether by full conveyance or by land contract, contract-for-deed, or other similar instrument, and the FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354 debt is not assumed by the purchaser (new owner) or paid in full, the conveyance will not be approved, except as provided in paragraphs (b)(2) and (b)(5) of this section or § 1951.462 of this subpart. If the conveyance is not approved the loan must be liquidated unless FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354 determines it is not in the Government's best interest. If FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354 decides to continue with the loan, the account will be serviced in the borrower's name and the borrower will remain liable for the loan under the terms of the security instrument.

(a) [Reserved]

(b) General. The following policies apply to all transfers and assumptions under this subpart:

(1) Amount of assumption. Except for transfers covered in paragraphs (b)(2), (b)(3), (b)(4), (b)(5) and (d) of this section, the transferee will assume the lesser of the indebtedness, or current market value as determined by FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354, less any prior liens and the downpayment.

(2) Conveyance of security property by borrower to spouse or child. When a borrower conveys security property to his/her spouse or children, assumption of the indebtedness is not required and FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354 may not take action to liquidate the loan as long as payments are made as scheduled and other obligations of the loan are met. In the event the transferee(s) wishes to assume the indebtedness, it may be assumed on the terms outlined in paragraph (d)(1) of this section as applicable to the circumstances.

(3) Withdrawal of jointly liable borrower. When a stockholder/member/partner/joint operator of an entity who is personally liable on the note withdraws from the entity or dies, and all of the remaining individuals are not personally liable on the note(s), the loan must be assumed by all remaining parties.

(4) Addition of new transferee(s). When new stockholders/members/partners/joint operators enter an entity, assumption of the indebtedness is required, however, the indebtedness may be assumed on existing terms. A downpayment based on the unpaid balance of the loan is required when the assumption is closed.

(5) Conveyance of security property into an inter vivos trust. When the borrower conveys security property into an inter vivos trust, whereby the borrower does not transfer rights of occupancy in the property, FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354 may not take action to liquidate the loan as long as payments are made as scheduled and other obligations of the loan are met.

(c) Program assumption. A NP loan may be assumed by an eligible program applicant if the property meets the eligibility requirements for a currently authorized program (SFH, Farm Ownership (FO), etc.). In such cases, the assumption will be at the interest rate and up to the maximum term in effect for the type loan involved at the time the assumption is approved. After assumption on program terms, the loan will be reclassified as Rural Housing (RH), FO, etc., as applicable.

(d) NP assumption. The rates and terms for an NP assumption will be as provided in §1951.455 of this subpart. A loan may be assumed on existing terms only in the situations outlined in paragraphs (b)(2), (b)(3), (b)(4), (b)(5), (d)(1), (d)(2), and (d)(3) of this section. An individual not liable for the loan who acquires title to or an interest in the security by means of one of the situations mentioned may assume the indebtedness on existing terms or current terms if more favorable, in which case a downpayment based on the unpaid balance would be required. The interest rate, final due date, payment date, and account status (current, delinquent, ahead of schedule) will not be changed by virtue of an assumption on existing terms, after assumption compliance with loan conditions is required. If a same terms assumption is consummated and the account is delinquent, it may be reamortized in accordance with applicable program regulations. Situations where these terms are authorized are:

(1) An individual who acquires title to or an interest in the security property by virtue of death, divorce, or deed from a spouse or parent but is not liable for the debt and who wishes to assume the loan may do so. Any subsequent transfer of title, except between inheritors to consolidate title, will be treated as a sale and is not covered by these provisions. Individuals in this category are:

- (i) A deceased borrower's surviving spouse.
- (ii) A divorced borrower's spouse.

(iii) A joint tenant with right of survivorship or relative of a deceased borrower.

(2) The spouse or child of a living borrower to whom title to the security property has been conveyed by spouse or parent.

(3) A person other than the deceased borrower's spouse who wishes to continue with the loan under conditions outlined in §1951.462 (c) or (d) of this subpart may do so.

(e) County Committee actions on Farmer Program assumptions. On program assumptions, the County Committee must certify the transferee's eligibility for the type of loan to be assumed.

(f) Title clearance and loan closing. Title clearance and closing will be the same as for any program loan of the same type.

(g) Release from liability. Release from liability of NP borrowers is not authorized.

§§ 1951.464–1951.467 [Reserved]

§ 1951.468 Liquidation.

When it is determined an NP borrower cannot or will not successfully repay the loan, FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354 will attempt to have the borrower liquidate voluntarily.

(a) Voluntary. If an NP borrower in default indicates a willingness to voluntarily liquidate, other liquidation actions by FmHA or its successor agency under Public Law 103-354 may be delayed for a reasonable period, usually not to exceed 120 days for real estate, if the borrower is earnestly seeking other financing, or has the security property listed or offered for sale and it is being actively marketed at a reasonable price.

(b) Foreclosure. If an NP borrower in default (monetary or nonmonetary) does not cure the default and is not willing or able to voluntarily liquidate, the servicing official will refer the case to the next level supervisor with a recommendation for further action. If foreclosure is approved, the account will be accelerated. NP borrowers do not have appeal rights under subpart B of part 1900 of this chapter; however, the NP borrower may request a review of the decision to foreclose by the next
