

Farm Service Agency, USDA

§ 741.42

Agriculture, authorized by the Secretary for the purpose, to enter and inspect or examine at any time any warehouse for the conduct of which such warehouseman holds a license, the office thereof, the books, records, papers, and accounts relating thereto, and the contents thereof, and shall furnish such officer or agent the assistance necessary to enable him to make any inspection or examination under this section.

§ 741.38 Inspection of weighing, testing, and measuring apparatus.

The apparatus used for determining the weight, quantity, or quality stated in a receipt or certificate shall be subject to examination by any officer or agent of the Department of Agriculture employed for such purpose. If the Service shall disapprove such apparatus, it shall not thereafter, unless such disapproval be withdrawn, be used in ascertaining the weight, quantity, or quality of sirup for the purposes of the act and this part.

§ 741.39 Care in storage.

Each warehouseman shall keep the stock stored in his licensed warehouse in an orderly manner, shall provide sufficient aisle space so as to permit easy and ready access to any and all lots of sirup stored therein, and shall so store each lot of sirup as to facilitate sampling of sirup and inspection for condition. The warehouseman shall at all times keep his warehouse clean and free from all litter.

§ 741.40 Water or ash in sirup.

The warehouseman shall not accept for storage in his warehouse any sugarcane sirup which contains more than 30 percent by weight of water or more than 2.5 percent by weight of ash; nor shall he accept maple sirup containing in excess of 35 percent by weight of water or which weighs less than 11 pounds to the gallon; nor shall he accept honey weighing less than 11 pounds 12 ounces to the gallon, or containing in excess of 25 percent of water, or more than 0.25 percent of ash or 8 percent of sucrose.

§ 741.41 Procedure to follow prior to reconditioning deteriorating sirup.

If the warehouseman considers that any sirup in his warehouse is out of condition, or becoming so, he shall direct the licensed inspector to examine the sirup in question, and, if such inspector finds such sirup to be out of condition or becoming so, and he is of the opinion that such sirup can be brought back into condition by reprocessing or other means, or that further deterioration can be prevented, the warehouseman shall give immediate notice of the facts to the persons, and in the manner, specified in § 741.42 (b) and (c). If, within 24 hours after the dispatch of such notice, the owners of such sirup have not otherwise directed as to the disposition of same, such warehouseman, with the approval of the licensed inspector, shall subject the sirup to the proper reconditioning process in his licensed warehouse to the extent to which it is equipped with apparatus suitable for the purpose, otherwise in any other warehouse so equipped.

§ 741.42 Deteriorating sirup; handling.

(a) If a warehouseman, with the approval of the licensed inspector, shall determine that any sirup is deteriorating and that such deterioration cannot be stopped by processing or otherwise, he shall give immediate notice thereof in accordance with paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Such notice shall state (1) the warehouse in which the sirup is stored; (2) the quantity, kind, and grade of the sirup at the time the notice is given; (3) the actual condition of the sirup as nearly as can be ascertained, and the reason, if known, for such condition; and (4) the outstanding receipts covering the sirup out of condition, giving the number and the date of each such receipt and the quantity, the kind and grade of the sirup as stated in each such receipt.

(c) A copy of such notice shall be delivered in person or shall be sent by mail (1) to the persons holding the receipts if known to the warehouseman; (2) to the person who originally deposited the sirup; (3) to any other persons known by the licensed warehouseman to be interested in the sirup; (4) to the Administrator; and (5) public notice shall also be given by posting a copy of such notice at the place where the warehouseman is required to post his license. A copy of such notice shall be kept as a record of the warehouse. If the holders of the receipts and the owners of the sirup are known to the warehouseman and cannot, in the regular course of the mails, be reached within 12 hours, the warehouseman shall, whether or not requested to do so, also immediately notify such persons by telegraph or telephone at their expense.

(d) Any person, interested in any sirup or the receipt covering such sirup stored in a licensed warehouse, may, in writing, notify the warehouseman of his interest, and such warehouseman shall keep a record of that fact. If such person requests in writing that he be notified regarding the condition of any such sirup and agrees to pay the cost of any telegraph or telephone toll charge, such warehouseman shall notify such person in accordance with such request.

(e) If the sirup advertised in accordance with the requirements of this section has not been removed from storage by the owner thereof within seven days from the dispatch of notice of its being out of condition, the warehouseman may sell the same at public auction at the expense and for the account of the owner, after giving 7 days' notice of such proposed sale in the manner specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(f) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as relieving the warehouseman from properly caring for any sirup after sending notification of its condition in accordance with this section.

(g) Records required to be kept by this section shall be retained, as a part of the records of the warehouse, for a period of six years after December 31 of the year in which created, and for such longer period as may be necessary for the purposes of any litigation which the warehouseman knows to be pending, or as may be required by the Ad-

[4 FR 4834, Dec. 13, 1939, as amended at 29 FR 13369, Sept. 26, 1964; 47 FR 745, Jan. 7, 1982. Redesignated at 50 FR 1814, Jan. 14, 1985]

§ 741.43 Excess storage.

If at any time a warehouseman shall be offered for storage in his warehouse sirup in excess of the licensed capacity as shown on his license, he shall not accept such sirup until he has first secured authority through an amended license, and after such authority has been granted, the warehouseman shall continue to so arrange the sirup as not to obstruct free access thereto and the proper use of sprinklers or other fire-protection equipment provided for such warehouse.

§ 741.44 Removal of sirup from storage.

Except as may be provided by law or this part, each warehouseman, (a) upon proper presentation and surrender of a receipt for sirup stored other than as identity preserved and upon payment or tender of all advances and legal charges, shall deliver to such depositor or lawful holder of such receipt sirup of the same grade and quantity specified in such receipt; and, (b) upon proper presentation and surrender of a receipt for sirup the identity of which was to have been preserved during the storage period and upon payment or tender of all advances and legal charges, shall deliver to the person lawfully entitled thereto the identical sirup covered by the surrendered receipt. Should it become necessary to remove sirup from the warehouse to protect the interests of depositors prior to the return and cancellation of receipts, the warehouseman shall immediately notify the Administrator of such removal and of the necessity therefor.

§ 741.45 Signatures of persons to sign receipts to be filed with Department.

Each warehouseman shall file with the Department the name and genuine signature of each person authorized to
