SECONDARY, POSTSECONDARY, AND ADULT VOCATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS

§ 403.110 Who is eligible for a subgrant or contract?

(a) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section, the following entities are eligible for an award under the Secondary School Vocational Education Program:

(1) A local educational agency.

(2) An area vocational education school or intermediate educational agency that meets the requirements in § 403.113.

(b) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section, the following entities are eligible for an award under the Postsecondary and Adult Vocational Education Programs:

(1) An institution of higher education as defined in § 403.117(b), including a nonprofit institution that satisfies the conditions set forth in § 403.111(d)(14).

(2) A local educational agency serving adults.

(3) An area vocational education school serving adults that offers or will offer a program that meets the requirements of § 403.111 and seeks to receive assistance under the Secondary School Vocational Education Program or the Postsecondary and Adult Vocational Education Programs.

(c) Only an entity that provides or will provide vocational education in a program that meets the requirements of § 403.111 is eligible to receive an award under the Secondary School Vocational Education Program or the Postsecondary and Adult Vocational Education Program.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C. 2341(a) and (d); 2341a (a) and (d)(1); and 2342(c))

§ 403.111 How must funds be used under the Secondary School Vocational Education Program and the Postsecondary and Adult Vocational Education Programs?

(a)(1) Each eligible recipient that receives an award under § 403.112, § 403.113, or § 403.116 shall use funds under that award to improve vocational education programs.

(2) Projects assisted with funds awarded under § 403.112, § 403.113, or § 403.116 must—

(i) Provide for the full participation of individuals who are members of special populations by providing the supplementary and other services required by § 403.190(b) necessary for them to succeed in vocational education; and

CROSS-REFERENCE: See appendix A to part 403 and §§ 403.190(c) and 403.193(e).

(ii) Operate at a limited number of sites or with respect to a limited number of program areas.

(3) If an eligible recipient that receives an award under § 403.112, § 403.113, or § 403.116 meets the requirements in this section and §§ 403.190(b) and 403.193, it may use those Federal funds to serve students who are not members of special populations.

(b) Each eligible recipient that receives an award under § 403.112, § 403.113, or § 403.116 shall give priority for assistance under those sections to sites or program areas that serve the highest concentrations of individuals who are members of special populations.

Examples: Methods by which an eligible recipient may give priority to sites or program areas that serve the highest concentrations of individuals who are members of special populations include, but are not limited to, the following:

Example 1: Method to give priority to a limited number of sites. Based on data from the preceding fiscal year—

(a) First, a local educational agency ranks each site based on the percentage of the site's total enrollment of students who are members of special populations.

(b) Second, the local educational agency establishes a funding cut-off point for sites above the district-wide percentage of special populations enrollment. The local educational agency funds sites above the cut-off point but does not fund sites below that point.

Example 2: Method to give priority to a limited number of program areas. Based on data from the preceding fiscal year—

(a) First, a postsecondary institution ranks each program area based on the percentage of the program area's total enrollment of students who are members of special populations.

(b) Second, the postsecondary institution establishes a funding cut-off point for program areas that rank above the institution-
