Subpart B—Transportation of a POV to a Post of Duty

NOTE TO SUBPART B: Use of the pronouns “I” and “you” throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

General

§302-10.100 Who is eligible for transportation of a POV to a post of duty?

An employee who is authorized to transfer to the post of duty, or a new appointee or a student trainee assigned to the post of duty.

§302-10.101 In what situations may my agency authorize transportation of a POV to my post of duty?

Your agency may authorize transportation when:

(a) At the time of your assignment, conditions warrant such authorization under §302–10.140;

(b) Subsequent to the time of your assignment conditions, which did not warrant authorization at the time of your assignment, change to warrant such authorization under §302–10.170; or

(c) Subsequent to the time of your assignment, conditions warrant authorization under §302–10.172 of a replacement POV.

§302-10.102 How many POV's may I transport to a post of duty?

One. This does not, however, limit the transportation of a replacement POV when authorized under §302–10.172.

§302-10.103 Do I have to ship my POV to my actual post of duty?

Yes. You may not transport the POV to an alternate location.

§302-10.104 What may I do if there is no port or terminal at the point of origin and/or destination?

Your agency will pay the entire cost of transporting the POV from your point of origin to your destination. If you prefer, however, you may choose to drive your POV from your point of origin at time of assignment to the nearest embarkation port or terminal, and/or from the debarkation port or terminal nearest your destination to your post of duty at any time. If you choose to drive, you will be reimbursed your one-way mileage cost, at the rate specified in part 301-4 of this subtitle, for driving the POV from your authorized origin to deliver it to the port of embarkation, or from the port of debarkation to the authorized destination. For the segment of travel from the port of embarkation back to your authorized origin after delivering the POV to the port, or from your authorized destination to the port of debarkation to pick-up the POV, you will be reimbursed your one-way transportation cost. The total cost of round-trip travel, to deliver the POV to the port at the origin or to pickup the POV at the port at your destination, may not exceed the cost of transporting the POV to or from the port involved. You may not be reimbursed a per diem allowance for round-trip travel to and from the port involved.

POV TRANSPORTATION AT TIME OF ASSIGNMENT

§302-10.140 Under what specific conditions may my agency authorize transportation of a POV to my post of duty upon my assignment to that post of duty?

Your agency may authorize transportation when:

(a) It has determined in accordance with §302–10.503 of this part that it is in the interest of the Government for you to have use of your POV at the post of duty;

(b) You have signed a service agreement; and

(c) You meet any specific conditions your agency has established.

§302-10.141 What is the “authorized point of origin” when I transport a POV to my post of duty?

Your “authorized point of origin” is as follows:

If you are a—	Your “authorized point of origin” is—
(a) A transferee (b) A new appointee or student trainee	Your old official station. Your place of actual residence.
