

Merit Systems Protection Board

§ 1201.205

consequential damages or compensatory damages must be filed as soon as possible after a final decision of the Board but no later than 60 days after the date on which a decision becomes final. Where the initial decision in the proceeding on the merits was issued by a judge in a MSPB regional or field office, the motion must be filed with the regional or field office that issued the initial decision. Where the decision in the proceeding on the merits was an initial decision issued by a judge at the Board's headquarters or where the only decision was a final decision issued by the Board, the motion must be filed with the Clerk of the Board.

(2) A copy of a motion for initiation of an addendum proceeding to decide a request for consequential damages or compensatory damages must be served on the other parties or their representatives at the time of filing. A party may file a pleading responding to the motion within the time limit established by the judge.

(f) Hearing; applicability of subpart B. The judge may hold a hearing on a request for consequential damages or compensatory damages and may apply appropriate provisions of subpart B of this part to the addendum proceeding.

(g) Initial decision; review by the Board. The judge will issue an initial decision in the addendum proceeding, which shall be subject to the provisions for a petition for review by the Board under subpart C of this part.

(h) Request for damages first made in proceeding before the Board. Where a request for consequential damages or compensatory damages is first made on petition for review of a judge's initial decision on the merits and the Board waives the time limit for making the request in accordance with paragraph (a)(2) of this section, or where the request is made in a case where the only MSPB proceeding is before the 3-member Board, including, for compensatory damages only, a request to review an arbitration decision under 5 U.S.C. 7121(d), the Board may:

(1) Consider both the merits and the request for damages and issue a final decision;

(2) Remand the case to the judge for a new initial decision, either on the request for damages only or on both the merits and the request for damages; or

(3) Where there has been no prior proceeding before a judge, forward the request for damages to a judge for hearing and a recommendation to the Board, after which the Board will issue a final decision on both the merits and the request for damages.

(i) EEOC review of decision on compensatory damages. A final decision of the Board on a request for compensatory damages pursuant to the Civil Rights Act of 1991 shall be subject to review by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission as provided under subpart E of this part.

§ 1201.205 Judicial review.

A final Board decision under this subpart is subject to judicial review as provided under 5 U.S.C. 7703.

APPENDIX I TO PART 1201—MERIT SYSTEMS PROTECTION BOARD APPEAL FORM

OMB NO. 3124-0080

MERIT SYSTEMS PROTECTION BOARD
APPEAL FORM
INSTRUCTIONS
GENERAL: You do not have to use this form to file an appeal with the Board. However, if you do not, your appeal must still comply with the Board's regulations. See 5 C.F.R. Parts 1201, 1208, and 1209. Your agency's personnel office will give you access to the regulations, and the Board will expect you to be familiar with them. You also should become familiar with the Board's key case law and controlling court decisions as they may affect your case. Complete Parts I, II, III and V of this form regardless of the kind of action you are appealing. Complete Part VI only if you are appealing an action resulting from a reduction in force. You must tell the Board if you are raising an affirmative defense (see Part IV), and you are responsible for proving each defense you raise. If you believe the action you are appealing was threatened, proposed, taken, or not taken because of whistleblowing activities, you must complete Part VII. If you are requesting a stay, you must complete Part VIII. If you claim a violation of your rights under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) or the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act (VEOA), you must provide the information required by the Board's regulations at 5 C.F.R. 1208.13 (for USERRA appeals) or 5 C.F.R. 1208.23 (for VEOA appeals). You may use a separate sheet of paper (please put your name and address at the top of each additional page) or you may include the information in block 31 of Part IV. WHERE TO FILE AN APPEAL: You must file your appeal with the Board's regional or field office which has responsibility for the geographic area where your duty station was located when the agency took the action or, if you are appealing a retirement or suitability decision, the geographic area where you live. See 5 C.F.R. Part 1201, Appendix II, and 5 C.F.R. 1201.4(d). WHEN TO FILE AN APPEAL: Unless your appeal is covered by a law that sets a different filing time limit, your appeal must be filed during the period beginning with the day after the effective date, if any, of the action you are appealing and ending on the 30th day	after the effective date, or within 30 days after the date you receive the agency's decision, whichever is later. However, if you and the agency mutually agree in writing to try to resolve your dispute through an alternative dispute resolution process before you file an appeal, you have an additional 30 days for a total of 60 days --to file your appeal. You may not file your appeal before the effective date of the action you are appealing. If your appeal is late, it may be dismissed as untimely. If you are filing a USERRA appeal, there is no time limit for filing (see 5 CFR 1208.12). You may not file a VEOA appeal with the Board unless you first filed a complaint with the Secretary of Labor and allowed the Secretary at least 60 days to try to resolve the matter; any subsequent appeal to the Board must be filed within 15 days of the date you receive notice that the Secretary has been unable to resolve the matter (see 5 C.F.R. 1208.22). If you are filing a whistleblower appeal after first filing a complaint with the Office of Special Counsel (OSC), your appeal must be filed within 65 days of the date of the OSC notice advising you that the Special Counsel will not seek corrective action or within 60 days after the date you receive the OSC notice, whichever is later (see 5 C.F.R. 1209.5). The date of filing is the date your appeal is postmarked, the date of the facsimile transmission, the date it is delivered to a commercial overnight delivery service, or the date of receipt if you personally deliver it to the regional or field office. HOW TO FILE AN APPEAL: You may file your appeal by mail, by facsimile, by commercial overnight delivery, or by personal delivery. You must submit two copies of both your appeal and all attachments. You may supplement your response to any question on separate sheets of paper, but if you do, please put your name and address at the top of each additional page. All of your submissions must be legible and on 8 1/2" x 11" paper. Your appeal must contain your or your representative's signature in block 6. If it does not, your appeal will be rejected and returned to you. If your representative signs block 6, you must sign block 11 or submit a separate written designation of representative.
Part I Appellant Identification
1. Name (last, first, middle initial)	2. Social Security Number
3. Present address (number and street, city, state, and ZIP code) You must notify the Board of any change of address or telephone number while the appeal is pending with MSPB.	4. Home phone (include area code)

Part VIII Stay Request
INSTRUCTIONS
You may request a stay of a personnel action allegedly based on whistleblowing at any time after you become eligible to file an appeal with the Board under 5 C.F.R. 1209.5, but no later than the time limit set for the close of discovery in the appeal. The stay request may be filed prior to, simultaneous with, or after the filing of an appeal. When you file a stay request with the Board, you must simultaneously serve it upon the agency's local servicing personnel office or the agency's designated representative. 5 C.F.R. 1209.8. If your stay request is being filed prior to filing an appeal with the Board, you must complete Parts I and II and items 41 through 43 above.
44. On separate sheets of paper, please provide the following. Please put your name and address at the top of each page.
a. A chronology of facts, including a description of the disclosure and the action taken by the agency (unless you have already supplied this information in Part VII above). b. Evidence and/or argument demonstrating that the: (1) action threatened, proposed, taken, or not taken is a personnel action, as defined in 5 C.F.R. 1209.4(a); and (2) action complained of was based on whistleblowing, as defined in 5 C.F.R. 1209.4(b) (unless you have already supplied this information in Part VII above).	c. Evidence and/or argument demonstrating that there is a substantial likelihood that you will prevail on the merits of your appeal of the personnel action. d. Documentary evidence that supports your stay request. e. Evidence and/or argument addressing how long the stay should remain in effect. f. Certificate of service specifying how and when the stay request was served on the agency. g. You may provide evidence and/or argument concerning whether a stay would impose extreme hardship on the agency.
Privacy Act Statement: This form requests personal information which is relevant and necessary to reach a decision in your appeal. The Merit Systems Protection Board collects this information in order to process appeals under its statutory and regulatory authority. Since your appeal is a voluntary action you are not required to provide any personal information in connection with it. However, failure to supply the Merit Systems Protection Board with all the information essential to reach a decision in your case could result in the rejection of your appeal. The Merit Systems Protection Board is authorized under provisions of Executive Order 9397, dated November 22, 1943, to request your Social Security number, but providing your Social Security number is voluntary and failure to provide it will not result in the rejection of your appeal. Your Social Security number will only be used for identification purposes in the processing of your appeal. You should know that the decisions of the Merit Systems Protection
Board on appeals are final administrative decisions and, as such, are available to the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act. Additionally, it is possible that information contained in your appeal file may be released as required by the Freedom of Information Act. Some information about your appeal will also be used in depersonalized form as a data base for program statistics. Public Reporting Burden: The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 20 minutes to 1 hour, with an average of 30 minutes per response, including time for reviewing the form, searching existing data sources, gathering the data necessary, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to Financial and Administrative Management, Merit Systems Protection Board, 1615 M Street, NW., Washington, DC 20419.
