

that case, basic pay is the rate of pay that would have been payable to the employee had he or she remained continuously employed in the position last held before separating (or entering leave-without-pay status) to perform military service.

Current contributions means those contributions that are made prospectively for any pay period after the employee has been reemployed.

Leave without pay or LWOP means a temporary nonpay status and absence from duty (including military furlough) to perform military service.

Reemployed or reemployment means reemployed in (or restored from a nonpay status to) a position pursuant to 38 U.S.C. chapter 43, which is subject to 5 U.S.C. chapter 84 or which entitles the employee to contribute to the TSP pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 8351.

Retroactive period means the period for which an employee is entitled to make up missed employee contributions and to receive retroactive agency contributions.

Retroactive period beginning date means, for an employee who was eligible to contribute to the TSP when military service began, the date following the effective date of separation or, in the case of LWOP, the date the employee enters LWOP status. For an employee who was not eligible to make TSP contributions when military service began, the retroactive period begins on the first day of the first pay period in the election period during which the employee would have been eligible to make contributions had the employee remained in Federal civilian service.

Retroactive period ending date means the earlier of the following two dates: the date before the first day of the first election period during which a contribution election could have been made effective after reemployment, or the last day of the pay period before the pay period during which routine current contributions are begun after the employee is reemployed (or restored). If an employee who was making contributions when he or she separated elects not to make routine current contributions, the ending date of the retroactive period is the last day of the pay period during which the employee elects to terminate contributions.

Separation or separated means the period an employee was separated from Federal civilian service (or entered a leave-without-pay status) in order to perform military service.

§ 1620.42 Processing TSP contribution elections.

(a) Current TSP contribution elections. Immediately upon reemployment, an employee's agency will give an eligible employee the opportunity to submit a TSP election form (Form TSP-1) to make current contributions. The effective date of the current Form TSP-1 will be the first day of the first full pay period in the most recent TSP election period. If the employee is reemployed during a TSP Open Season but before the election period, he or she can also submit an election form that will become effective the first day of the first full pay period in the following election period.

(b) Retroactive contribution elections. (1) An employee has the following options for making retroactive contributions:

(i) If the employee had a valid contribution election form (Form TSP-1) on file when he or she separated, that election form will be reinstated for purposes of retroactive contributions.

(ii) Instead of making the contributions for the retroactive period under the reinstated contribution election form, the employee may submit a new election form for any Open Season that occurred during the retroactive period. However, the allocation election on each Form TSP-1 for the retroactive period must be the same as the allocation election on the current Form TSP-1.

(2) An employee who terminated contributions within two months before entering military service will be eligible to make a retroactive contribution election effective for the first Open Season that occurs after the effective date that the contributions were terminated. This election may be made even if the termination was made outside of an Open Season.
