balance, excluding any outstanding loan amount as of the end of the month preceding the date of payment. If the entitlement calculated pursuant to this subpart exceeds the participant's vested account balance (excluding any outstanding loan amount), then only the vested amount in the account (excluding the outstanding loan balance) will be paid.

(d) The entire amount of an entitlement created by a qualifying court order must be disbursed at one time. A series of payments will not be made even if the court order provides for such a method of payment. A payment pursuant to a court order extinguishes all further rights to any payment under that order even if the entire amount of the entitlement could not be paid. Any further award must be contained in a separate court order.

(e) Payment cannot be made jointly to more than one person. If payment is to be made to more than one person, the order must separately indicate the amount to be paid to each.

(f) In order to make a payment pursuant to a retirement benefits court order, the Board's recordkeeper must be provided with the full name, mailing address, and Social Security number of the payee, even if the payment is being mailed to another address.

(g) If the payee dies before a payment is made pursuant to a qualifying retirement benefits court order, payment will be made to the estate of the payee, unless otherwise specified by the court order. If the participant dies before payment is made pursuant to a qualifying retirement benefits order entered before the participant's death, the order will be honored as long as it is submitted to the Board before payment of the account, regardless of whether the order was received by the Board before the participant's death.

(h) If the parties to a divorce or annulment are remarried, or a legal separation is terminated, a new court order will be required to prevent payment pursuant to a previously submitted qualifying retirement benefits court order.

(i) Payment to a person (including the estate of the payee) pursuant to a qualifying retirement benefits court order made in accordance with this subpart bars recovery by any other person pursuant to that order.

(j) Payments pursuant to qualifying court orders will be paid pro rata from the TSP investment funds, based on the balance in each fund on the date as of which the payment is made. The Board will not honor provisions of court orders that require payment to be made from specific investment funds.

Subpart B—Legal Process for the Enforcement of a Participant's Legal Obligations To Provide Child Support or Make Alimony Payments

SOURCE: 60 FR 45624, Aug. 31, 1995, unless otherwise noted.

§ 1653.20 Purpose and scope.

This subpart contains regulations prescribing the Board's procedures for responding to legal process for the enforcement of a participant's legal obligations to make alimony or child support payments, as required by 5 U.S.C. 8437(e)(3).

§ 1653.21 Definitions.

As used in this subpart:

Alimony means the payment of funds for the support and maintenance of a spouse or former spouse. Alimony includes separate maintenance, alimony pendente lite, maintenance, and spousal support. Alimony also can include attorney's fees, interest, and court costs, but only if these items are expressly made recoverable by qualifying legal process as described in § 1653.23.

Child support means payment of funds for the support and maintenance of a child or children. Child support includes payments to provide for health care, education, recreation, clothing, or to meet other specific needs of such a child or children. Child support also can include attorney's fees, interest, and court costs, but only if these items are expressly made recoverable by qualifying legal process as described in § 1653.23.

Legal obligation means an obligation to pay alimony or child support, or
