

the application is filed and documentation that the current spouse has consented to the loan.

(2) If the Board receives a written allegation from the spouse that the participant may have misrepresented his/her marital status or the spouse's address (in the case of a CSRS participant), or that the signature of the spouse of a FERS participant was forged, the Board will submit the questioned document to the spouse and request that he or she state in writing that the information is false or that the spouse's signature has been forged. In the event of an alleged forgery, the Board will also request the spouse to provide at least three signature samples.

(3) If the spouse affirms the allegation in accordance with the procedure set forth in paragraph (f)(2) of this section and the loan has been disbursed, the Board will give the participant an opportunity to repay, within 60 days, the unpaid loan principal, plus unpaid interest. If the loan is repaid, the Board will not investigate the spouse's allegation.

(4) Paragraph (f)(3) of this section will not apply where the participant has received a final divorce decree before the funds are received by the Thrift Savings Plan.

(5) If the unpaid loan principal, plus unpaid interest, is not repaid to the Plan in full within the time period provided in paragraph (f)(3) of this section, the Board will conduct an investigation into the allegation. If the participant has received a final divorce decree before the funds are received by the Thrift Savings Plan, the Board will begin its investigation immediately.

(6) If, during its investigation, the Board finds evidence to suggest that the participant misrepresented his/her marital status or spouse's address (in the case of a CSRS participant), or submitted the Loan Agreement/Promissory Note with a forged signature, the Board will refer the case to the Department of Justice for criminal prosecution and, if the participant is still employed, to the Inspector General or other appropriate authority in the participant's employing agency for administrative action.

(i) 30 days have elapsed since the participant's spouse was sent a copy of the questioned document and no written affirmation of the alleged false information or forgery (together with signature samples in the case of an alleged forgery) has been received by the Board;

(ii) The loan is repaid pursuant to paragraph (f)(3) of this section;

(iii) The Executive Director concludes that the Board's investigation did not yield persuasive evidence that supports the spouse's allegation;

(iv) The Executive Director has been assured in writing by the spouse that any future request for a loan or withdrawal comports with the applicable requirement of notice or consent; or

(v) The participant is divorced.

§ 1655.19 Court orders.

Upon receipt of a document that purports to be a qualifying retirement benefits court order or qualifying legal process relating to a participant's legal obligations to provide child support or make alimony payments, the participant's TSP account will be frozen. After the account is frozen, no loan will be allowed until the account is unfrozen. The Board's procedures for processing retirement benefits court orders and legal processes are explained in 5 CFR part 1653.

§ 1655.20 Loans for the purchase of a primary residence.

(a) A loan for the purchase of a primary residence will be made only for the purchase of the primary residence of the participant or the participant and his or her spouse and for related purchase costs. The participant must actually bear all or part of the cost of the purchase of the primary residence. If the participant purchases a primary residence with someone other than his or her spouse, only the portion of the purchase costs that are borne by the participant will be considered in making the loan. A loan for the purchase of a primary residence will not be made for the purpose of paying off an existing mortgage or otherwise providing financing for an existing primary residence purchased more than 2 years earlier.

(b) A primary residence must be used by the participant as his or her principal residence. A primary residence does not include a second home or vacation home. A participant cannot have more than one primary residence. A primary residence may include a houseboat, a house trailer, a condominium, or stock held in a cooperative housing corporation.

(c) Purchase of a primary residence means acquisition of the residence through the exchange of cash or other property or through the total construction of the new residence. Construction of an addition to or the renovation of a residence does not constitute "purchase" of a primary residence.

(d) Related purchase costs are any costs that are incurred directly as a result of the purchase or construction of a residence and which can be added to the basis of the residence for Federal tax purposes. However, "points" or loan origination fees charged for a loan, whether or not treated as part of the basis, will not be considered a purchase cost.

(e) The documentation required for a loan under this section is as follows:

(1) For all purchases except for construction, a copy of a home purchase contract or a settlement sheet or estimated settlement sheet;

(2) For construction, a home construction contract. If a single home construction contract is unavailable, additional contracts, building permits, receipts, assessments, or other documentation that demonstrates the construction of an entire primary residence and expenses in the amount of the loan may be accepted.

(f) The documentation provided under this subparagraph must bear a date that is no more than 24 months preceding the date of application.

PART 1690—MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS

Sec.

1690.1 Plan year.

1690.2 Power of attorney.

AUTHORITY: 5 U.S.C. 8474.

§ 1690.1 Plan year.

The Thrift Savings Plan's plan year will be established on a calendar-year basis for all purposes, except where another applicable provision of law requires that a fiscal year or other basis be used. As used in this section, the term "calendar-year basis" means a twelve month period beginning on January 1 and ending on December 31 of the same year.

[52 FR 43315, Nov. 12, 1987]

§ 1690.2 Power of attorney.

This section applies to all regulations in this chapter that require a signature by the participant on a Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) form, where the participant desires to effect transactions through an agent (i.e., an attorney-in-fact). Before an attorney-in-fact may sign a TSP form on behalf of a participant, the Board must have approved either a general power of attorney which authorizes the attorney-in-fact to act on behalf of the participant with respect to the principal's personal property or in Federal Government retirement, financial, or business transactions; or a special power of attorney which authorizes the attorney-in-fact to effect transactions in the TSP on behalf of the participant. For a power of attorney to be acceptable to effect transactions in the TSP, it must be authenticated, attested, acknowledged, or certified before a notary public or other official authorized by law to administer oaths or affirmations. The Board will advise the person submitting a power of attorney whether it is valid to effect transactions in the TSP.
