

which the appropriate request canceling the enrollment is received by the employing office.

(2) An annuitant may suspend enrollment in FEHB for the purpose of enrolling in a Medicare-sponsored plan under sections 1833, 1876, or 1851 of the Social Security Act, or to enroll in the Medicaid program or a similar State-sponsored program of medical assistance for the needy, or for the purpose of using TRICARE coverage (including coverage provided by the Uniformed Services Family Health Plan) under title 10 U.S.C. instead of FEHB coverage. To suspend FEHB coverage, documentation must be submitted to the employing office or retirement system within the period beginning 31 days before and ending 31 days after the effective date of the enrollment in the Medicare-sponsored plan, or the Medicaid or similar program, or the first day of using TRICARE (including the Uniformed Services Family Health Plan) instead of FEHB coverage. The suspension becomes effective on the day before the effective date of the enrollment in the Medicare-sponsored plan, or Medicaid or a similar program, or the day before the day designated by the annuitant as the first day of using TRICARE (including the Uniformed Services Family Health Plan) instead of FEHB coverage.

(3) The enrollee and covered family members are not entitled to the temporary extension of coverage for conversion or to convert to an individual contract for health benefits.

(e) Temporary continuation of coverage. Employees and family members are entitled to temporary continuation of coverage only as provided under subpart K of this part.

§ 890.305 Reinstatement of enrollment after military service.

(a) The enrollment of an employee or annuitant whose enrollment was terminated under § 890.304(a)(1)(vi), (vii), or (viii) or § 890.304(b)(4)(iii) is automatically reinstated on the day the employee is restored to a civilian position under the provisions of part 353 of this chapter, or similar authority, or on the day the annuitant is separated from the uniformed services, as the case may be.

(b) An employee whose employing office terminates his or her enrollment because his or her order to enter on duty in a uniformed service is for a period longer than 30 days, and who retires on an immediate annuity from his or her Federal civilian position while on such duty, may reinstate his or her enrollment by asking to do so within 60 days after retirement. In the absence of such a request, the retirement system automatically reinstates the enrollment on the day the person separates from the uniformed service. For the retirement system to reinstate the enrollment, the individual must have been covered under this part since his or her first opportunity or for the 5 years of civilian service (excluding the period of uniformed service) immediately preceding the civilian retirement, whichever is shorter.

§ 890.306 Opportunities for annuitants to change enrollment or to reenroll; effective dates.

(a) Requirements to continue coverage.

(1) To be eligible to continue coverage in a plan under this part, a former employee in receipt of an annuity must meet the statutory requirements under 5 U.S.C. 8905(b) of having retired on an immediate annuity and having been covered by a plan under this part for the 5 years of service immediately before retirement, or if less than 5 years, for all service since his or her first opportunity to enroll, unless OPM waives the requirement under § 890.108.

(2) To be eligible to continue coverage in a plan under this part, a survivor annuitant must be covered as a
