

§ 738.14

Secretary, within a time, if any, fixed in such notice a bond complying with the act, unless bond in sufficient amount has been filed since the filing of such application. In the discretion of the Secretary, or his designated representative, a properly executed instrument in form approved by him, amending, extending, or continuing in force and effect the obligations of a valid bond previously filed by the warehouseman and otherwise complying with the act and the regulations in this part may be filed in lieu of a new bond.

§ 738.14 New bond required each year.

Whenever a license has been issued for a period longer than 1 year, such license shall not be effective beyond 1 year from its effective date unless the warehouseman shall have filed a new bond in the required amount with, and such bond shall have been approved by, the Secretary or his designated representative, prior to the date on which that license would have expired had it been issued for but 1 year, subject to the provisions of § 738.13.

§ 738.15 Approval of bond.

No bond, amendment, or continuation thereof shall be deemed accepted for the purposes of the act and the regulations in this part until it has been approved by the Secretary or his designated representative.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS

§ 738.16 Form.

(a) Every receipt, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable, issued for wool stored in a warehouse, shall, in addition to complying with the requirements of section 18 of the act, embody within its written or printed terms of the following:

(1) The name of the warehouseman and the designation, if any, of the warehouse; (2) the number of the license issued to the warehouseman (3) a statement whether the warehouseman is incorporated or unincorporated, and, if incorporated, under what laws; (4) in the event the relationship existing between the warehouseman and any depositor is not that of strictly disinterested custodianship, a statement setting forth the actual relationship;

7 CFR Ch. VII (1-1-02 Edition)

(5) a statement, conspicuously placed, whether the wool is insured by the warehouseman and, if insured, to what extent and whether against fire, lightning, or otherwise; (6) the kind of wool; (7) a blank space designated for the purpose in which, if the wool is not commingled, a careful estimate of the shrinkage of the wool may be stated, or in which, if the wool is commingled, a careful estimate of the shrinkage of the wool shall be stated; (8) if the wool is not commingled, its identification in accordance with § 738.34; (9) if the wool is commingled, a clear and conspicuous notation to that effect, and the designation of the lot or pile of which it is a part on the face of the receipt; and (10) the words "Negotiable" or "Non-negotiable" and "Original" or "Copy" according to the nature of the receipt, clearly and conspicuously printed thereon.

(b) Every receipt, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable, issued for wool stored in a warehouse shall specify a period, not exceeding 1 year, for which the wool is accepted for storage under the act and the regulations in this part. Upon demand and surrender of the old receipt, by the lawful holder thereof, at or before the expiration of the specified period, and cancelation of the receipt, the warehouseman, upon such lawful terms and conditions as he may grant at such time to other depositors of wool in his warehouse, if he then continues to act as a licensed warehouseman, shall issue a new receipt for a further specified period not exceeding 1 year and shall indicate thereon the date when the wool was first received.

(c) Every negotiable receipt issued for wool stored in a warehouse shall, in addition to complying with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, embody within its written or printed terms the following: (1) If the wool covered by such receipt was graded by a licensed grader or weighed by a licensed weigher, a statement to that effect; (2) a form of indorsement which may be used by the depositor or the lawful holder of the receipt, or the authorized agent of either, for showing the ownership of, and liens, mortgages, or other encumbrances on, the wool covered by the receipt.
