out success and (2) a bond in amount double the value, at the time the bond is given, of the sirup represented by the lost or destroyed receipt. Such bond shall be in the form approved for the purpose by the Secretary, or his designated representative, shall be conditioned to indemnify the warehouseman against any loss sustained by reason of the issuance of such duplicate receipt, and shall have as surety thereon (i) preferably a surety company which is authorized to do business, and is subject to service of process in a suit on the bond, in the State in which the warehouse is located, or (ii) at least two individuals who are residents of such State and each of whom owns real property therein having a value in excess of all exemptions and encumbrances, to the extent of double the amount of the bond.

§ 741.19 Printing of receipts.

No receipt shall be issued by a licensed warehouseman unless it is:

(a) In a form prescribed by the Administrator, (b) Upon distinctive paper or card stock specified by the Administrator, (c) Printed by a printer with whom the United States has a subsisting agreement and bond for such printing, and

(d) On paper and/or card stock tinted with ink in the manner prescribed by the agreement under paragraph (c) of this section.

[62 FR 33541, June 20, 1997]

§ 741.20 Partial delivery of sirup.

If a warehouseman delivers a part only of a lot of sirup for which he has issued a negotiable receipt under the act, he shall take up and cancel such receipt and issue a new receipt in accordance with this part for the undelivered portion of the sirup. The new receipt shall show the date of issuance and also indicate the number and date of the old receipt.

§ 741.21 Return of receipt before delivery of sirup.

Except as permitted by law or by this part, a warehouseman shall not deliver sirup for which he was issued a negotiable receipt until the receipt has been returned to him and canceled, and shall not deliver sirup for which he has issued a nonnegotiable receipt until such receipt has been returned to him or he has obtained from the person lawfully entitled to such delivery, or his authorized agent, a written order therefor.

§ 741.22 Signatures of persons authorized to direct delivery to be filed with warehouseman.

Each person to whom a nonnegotiable receipt is issued shall furnish the warehouseman with a statement in writing indicating the person or persons having power to authorize delivery of sirup covered by such receipt, together with the bona fied signature of such person or persons. No licensed warehouseman shall honor an order for the release of sirup covered by a nonnegotiable receipt until he has first ascertained that the person issuing the order has authority to order such release and that the signature of the releasing party is genuine: Provided, That if the holder of such nonnegotiable receipt agrees in writing to hold blameless both the warehouseman and bondsman for any loss that might result from improper delivery through receipt of an unauthorized telegram, deliveries may be made on receipt of telegraphic orders to be followed immediately with usual confirmation order.

§ 741.23 Omission of grade; no compulsion by warehouseman.

No warehouseman shall, directly or indirectly, by any means whatsoever, compel or attempt to compel the depositor of any sirup stored in his licensed warehouse to request the issuance of a receipt omitting the statement of grade.

DUTIES OF LICENSED WAREHOUSEMAN

§ 741.24 Sirup must be inspected.

(a) No warehouseman shall accept sirup for storage until it has been inspected and approved by a licensed inspector.

(b) All sirup, the identity of which is not to be preserved, or has not been preserved, shall be accepted for and delivered out of storage only on the basis of grades and weights or quantities determined by licensed inspectors and weighers.

§ 741.25 Insurance requirements.

(a) Each warehouseman, when so requested in writing by the depositor of or the lawful holder of the receipt for any sirup, shall, to the extent to which, in the exercise of due diligence, he is able to procure such insurance, keep such sirup while in his custody fully insured in his own name against loss or damage by fire, lightning, or tornado. When insurance is not carried in the warehouseman's name, the receipts shall show that the sirup is not insured by him. Such insurance shall be covered by lawful policies issued by one or more insurance companies authorized to do such business in the State where the warehouse is located. If the warehouseman is unable to procure such insurance, he shall, orally, or by telegraph or by telephone and at his own expense, immediately notify the person making the request. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a warehouseman from adopting a rule that he will insure all sirup.

(b) Each warehouseman shall keep exposed conspicuously in the place prescribed by §741.6, and at such other place as the Administrator, or his representative may from time to time designate, a notice stating briefly the conditions under which sirup will be insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning, or tornado.

(c) Each warehouseman shall take promptly such steps as may be necessary and proper to collect any moneys which may become due under contracts of insurance entered into by him for the purpose of meeting the requirements of this part, and shall, as soon as collected, pay promptly to the persons concerned any portion of such moneys which they may be entitled to receive from him.

§ 741.26 Premiums; inspections; reports.

Each warehouseman shall, in accordance with his contracts with insurance and bonding companies for the purpose of meeting the insurance and bonding requirements of this part, pay such premiums, permit such reasonable inspections and examinations, and make such reasonable reports as may be provided for in such contracts.
