

Except as specifically authorized by the terms of a license, prohibited transactions by persons whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) and debits to accounts blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) are not considered incidental to a licensed transaction and therefore remain prohibited.

§ 590.406 Offshore transactions.

(a) The prohibitions contained in § 590.207 apply to transactions by any U.S. person in a location outside the United States with respect to property in which the U.S. person knows, or has reason to know, that a person whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) has or has had an interest since the effective date of § 590.207.

(b) Transactions by a U.S. person prohibited by § 590.207 include but are not limited to:

(1) Importation into or exportation from locations outside the United States of goods, technology, or services in which the U.S. person knows, or has reason to know, that a person whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) has or has had an interest since the effective date of § 590.207.

(2) Purchasing, selling, financing, swapping, insuring, transporting, lifting, storing, incorporating, transforming, brokering, or otherwise dealing in, within locations outside the United States, goods, technology, or services in which the U.S. person knows, or has reason to know, that a person whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) has or has had an interest since the effective date of § 590.207.

(c) Examples. (1) A U.S. person may not, within the United States or abroad, purchase, sell, finance, insure, transport, act as a broker for the sale or transport of, or otherwise deal in the personal possessions of any person whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a).

(2) A U.S. person may not, within the United States or abroad, enter into any contract for any goods or services with UNITA or with any other person whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a).

§ 590.407 Transshipments through the United States prohibited.

(a) The prohibitions in §§ 590.201, 590.203, 590.204, 590.205, and 590.206 apply to the importation into the United States, for transshipment or transit, of goods or services intended or destined to be sold, supplied, or provided in violation of §§ 590.201, 590.203, 590.204, 590.205, or 590.206.

(b) The prohibition in § 590.208 applies to the importation into the United States, for transshipment or transit, of diamonds intended or destined for third countries if the diamonds were exported from Angola on or after 12:01 a.m. EDT on August 19, 1998 and are not controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the Angolan Government of Unity and National Reconciliation. In the case of diamonds transported by vessel, the prohibition in § 590.208 applies to the unloading in the United States and the intent to unlade in the United States of diamonds intended or destined for third countries if the diamonds were exported from Angola on or after 12:01 a.m. EDT on August 19, 1998 and are not controlled through the Certificate of Origin regime of the Angolan Government of Unity and National Reconciliation.

(c) Goods imported into or transshipped through the United States are blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) if those goods constitute property in which a person whose property is blocked pursuant to § 590.207(a) has or has had an interest since the effective date of § 590.207.

§ 590.408 Exports to third countries; transshipments.

(a) The prohibitions in §§ 590.201 and 590.203 include the exportation of arms and related materiel, petroleum and petroleum products, and aircraft or aircraft components to third countries if the exporter knows or has reason to know that the goods are intended for reexportation or transshipment to the territory of Angola, other than through a point of entry designated in appendix B to this part, or to UNITA, including passage through or storage in intermediate destinations.

(b) The prohibitions in §§ 590.204 and 590.205 include the exportation of
