(4) Reviewing the CIPR report, advising the contractor of the recommendations contained therein, considering contractor comments, and rendering a decision on those recommendations;

(5) Providing other interested contracting officers copies of documents related to the CIPR;

(6) Ensuring adequate follow-up on all CIPR recommendations; and

(7) Performing contract administration responsibilities related to Cost Accounting Standards administration as described in FAR Subparts 30.2 and 30.6.

(b) The DCMA insurance/pension specialist is responsible for—

(1) Preparing and maintaining the schedule of CIPRs to be performed during the next 12 months and providing the military departments and DCAA a copy of the schedule;

(2) Issuing a technical report on the contractor's insurance/pension plans for incorporation into the final CIPR report based on an analysis of the contractor's pension program, insurance program, and other related data;

(3) Leading the team that conducts the review. Another individual may serve as the team leader when both the insurance/pension specialist and the individual agree. The team leader is responsible for—

(i) Maintaining complete documentation for CIPR reports;

(ii) To the extent possible, resolving discrepancies between audit reports and CIPR draft reports prior to releasing the final CIPR report;

(iii) Preparing and distributing the final CIPR report;

(iv) Providing the final audit report and/or the insurance/pension specialist's report as an attachment to the CIPR report; and

(v) Preparing a draft letter for the administrative contracting officer's use in notifying the contractor of CIPR results; and

(4) When requested, advising administrative contracting officers and other Government representatives concerning contractor insurance/pension matters.

(c) The DCAA auditor is responsible for—

(1) Participating as a member of the CIPR team or serving as the team leader (see paragraph (b)(3) of this section);

(2) Issuing an audit report for incorporation into the final CIPR report based on an analysis of the contractor's books, accounting records, and other related data; and

(3) Performing contract audit responsibilities related to Cost Accounting Standards administration as described in FAR Subparts 30.2 and 30.6.

Subpart 242.74—Technical Representation at Contractor Facilities

242.7400 General.

(a) Contract administration offices (CAOs) are the designated representatives of DoD for the administration of contracts (see FAR 42.202 and 42.302). DoD activities shall use CAOs to perform contract administration service functions at or near contractor facilities (see 242.202(a)).

(b) Program managers may conclude that they need technical representation in contractor facilities to perform non-contract administration service (CAS) technical duties and to provide liaison, guidance, and assistance on systems and programs. In these cases, the program manager may assign technical representatives under the procedures in 242.7401.

(c) Program managers should carefully assess the number of technical representatives required to perform the non-CAS technical functions so as to keep the total assigned in-plant to the minimum necessary.

(d) A technical representative is a representative of a DoD program, project, or system office performing non-CAS technical duties at or near a contractor facility. A technical representative is not—

(1) A representative of a contract administration or contract audit component; or

(2) A contracting officer's representative (COR) (see 201.602).
