

Agency but the owner or tenant is displaced from the mobile home because of one of the circumstances described at § 24.503(a)(3).

§ 24.505 Additional rules governing relocation payments to mobile home occupants.

(a) Replacement housing payment based on dwelling and site. Both the mobile home and mobile home site must be considered when computing a replacement housing payment. For example, a displaced mobile home occupant may have owned the displacement mobile home and rented the site or may have rented the displacement mobile home and owned the site. Also, a person may elect to purchase a replacement mobile home and rent a replacement site, or rent a replacement mobile home and purchase a replacement site. In such cases, the total replacement housing payment shall consist of a payment for a dwelling and a payment for a site, each computed under the applicable section in subpart E. However, the total replacement housing payment under subpart E shall not exceed the maximum payment (either $22,500 or $5,250) permitted under the section that governs the computation for the dwelling. (See also § 24.403(b).)

(b) Cost of comparable replacement dwelling—(1) If a comparable replacement mobile home is not available, the replacement housing payment shall be computed on the basis of the reasonable cost of a conventional comparable replacement dwelling.

(2) If the Agency determines that it would be practical to relocate the mobile home, but the owner-occupant elects not to do so, the Agency may determine that, for purposes of computing the price differential under § 24.401(c), the cost of a comparable replacement dwelling is the sum of:

- (i) The value of the mobile home,
- (ii) The cost of any necessary repairs or modifications, and
- (iii) The estimated cost of moving the mobile home to a replacement site.

(c) Initiation of negotiations. If the mobile home is not actually acquired, but the occupant is considered displaced under this part, the “initiation of negotiations” is the initiation of negotiations to acquire the land, or, if the land is not acquired, the written notification that he or she is a displaced person under this part.

(d) Person moves mobile home. If the owner is reimbursed for the cost of moving the mobile home under this part, he or she is not eligible to receive a replacement housing payment to assist in purchasing or renting a replacement mobile home. The person may, however, be eligible for assistance in purchasing or renting a replacement site.

(e) Partial acquisition of mobile home park. The acquisition of a portion of a mobile home park property may leave a remaining part of the property that is not adequate to continue the operation of the park. If the Agency determines that a mobile home located in the remaining part of the property must be moved as a direct result of the project, the owner and any tenant shall be considered a displaced person who is entitled to relocation payments and other assistance under this part.
