

from the date an employer has knowledge of an employee's injury or death, including any disease or death proximately caused by the employment, the employer shall furnish a report thereof to the district director for the compensation district in which the injury or death occurred, and shall thereafter furnish such additional or supplemental reports as the district director may request.

(b) No report shall be filed unless the injury causes the employee to lose one or more shifts from work. However, the employer shall keep a record containing the information specified in § 702.202. Compliance with the current OSHA injury record keeping requirements at 29 CFR part 1904 will satisfy the record keeping requirements of this section for no lost time injuries.

§ 702.202 Employer's report; form and contents.

The employer's report of an employee's injury or death shall be in writing and on a form prescribed by the Director for this purpose, and shall contain:

(a) The name, address and business of the employer;

(b) The name, address, occupation and Social Security Number (SSN) of the employee;

(c) The cause, nature, and other relevant circumstances of the injury or death;

(d) The year, month, day, and hour when, and the particular locality where, the injury or death occurred;

(e) Such other information as the Director may require.

§ 702.203 Employer's report; how given.

The employer's report, an original and one copy, may be furnished by delivering it to the appropriate office of the district director, or by mailing it to said office.

§ 702.204 Employer's report; penalty for failure to furnish and or falsifying.

Any employer, insurance carrier, or self-insured employer who knowingly and willfully fails or refuses to send any report required by § 702.201, or who knowingly or willfully makes a false statement or misrepresentation in any report, shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $10,000.00 for each such failure, refusal, false statement, or misrepresentation. Provided, however, that for any violations occurring on or after November 17, 1997 the maximum civil penalty may not exceed $11,000.00. The district director has the authority and responsibility for assessing a civil penalty under this section.

[62 FR 53956, Oct. 17, 1997]

§ 702.205 Employer's report; effect of failure to report upon time limitations.

Where the employer, or agent in charge of the business, or carrier has been given notice or has knowledge of an employee's injury or death, and fails, neglects, or refuses to file a report thereof as required by § 702.201, the time limitations provisions with respect to the filing of claims for compensation for disability or death (33 U.S.C. 913(a), and see § 702.221) shall not begin to run until such report shall have been furnished as required herein.

NOTICE

§ 702.211 Notice of employee's injury or death; designation of responsible official.

(a) In order to claim compensation under the Act, an employee or claimant must first give notice of the fact of an injury or death to the employer and also may give notice to the district director for the compensation district in which the injury or death occurred. Notice to the employer must be given to that individual whom the employer has designated to receive such notices. If no individual has been so designated notice may be given to: (1) The first line supervisor (including foreman, hatchboss or timekeeper), local plant manager or personnel office official; (2)
