

but are no longer receiving housing assistance, the HA may, on at least 30 calendar days notice, reduce the number of units covered by the HAP contract. The HA may reduce the number of units to the number of units actually leased or available for leasing by eligible families plus 10 percent (rounded up). If the owner has only one unit under HAP contract and if one year has elapsed since the date of the last housing assistance payment, the HAP contract may be terminated with the consent of the owner.

(c) Restoration. The HA will agree to an amendment of the HAP contract to provide for subsequent restoration of any reduction made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section if:

- (1) The HA determines that the restoration is justified by demand,
- (2) The owner otherwise has a record of compliance with obligations under the HAP contract; and
- (3) Contract authority is available.

Subpart E—Management

§ 983.201 Responsibilities of the HA.

The HA must:

- (a) Inspect the project before, during and upon completion of new construction or rehabilitation; and
- (b) Ensure that the amount of assistance that is attached to units is within the amounts available under the ACC.

§ 983.202 Responsibilities of the owner.

Section 982.452 of this chapter, Owner responsibilities, applies. The owner is also responsible for performing all of the owner responsibilities under the Agreement and the HAP contract, providing the HA with a copy of any termination of tenancy notification, and offering vacant, accessible units to a Family with one or more members with a disability requiring accessibility features of the vacant unit and occupying an assisted unit not having such features.

§ 983.203 Family participation.

Subpart E of part 982 of this chapter, Selection for Tenant-based Program, does not apply, except as it is expressly made applicable by this section.

(a) HA selection for participation. (1) The following provisions apply to this part: §§ 982.201, 982.202 except paragraph (b)(3), 982.203, 982.204 except paragraph (a) and (d), 982.205 except paragraph (a), 982.206, 982.207.

(2) For purposes of this part, a family becomes a participant when the family and owner execute a lease for a unit with project-based assistance.

(3) An HA may use the tenant-based waiting list, a merged waiting list, or a separate PBC waiting list for admission to the PBC program. If the HA opts to have a separate PBC waiting list, the HA may use a single waiting list for all PBC projects, or may use a separate PBC waiting list for an area not smaller than a county or municipality.

(4) Except for special admissions and admissions pursuant to paragraph (c)(3) of this section, participants must be selected from the HA waiting list. The HA must select participants from the waiting list in accordance with admission policies in the HA administrative plan.

(5) HAs authorized to use the 30-percent limit to prevent prepayments under State mortgage programs must not count families selected to occupy units in these State-assisted or subsidized projects against the local preference limit.

(6) The selection of eligible in-place families does not count against the local preference limit.

(b) HA determination of eligibility of in-place families. Before an HA selects a specific unit to which assistance is to be attached, the HA must determine whether the unit is occupied, and if occupied, whether the unit's occupants are eligible for assistance. If the unit is occupied by an eligible family (including a single person) and the HA selects the unit, the family must be afforded the opportunity to lease that unit or another appropriately sized, project-based assisted unit in the project without requiring the family to be placed on the waiting list. An HA may not select a unit, or enter into an Agreement
