

deciding official subject to the provisions in § 15.205.

(b) All other probate cases will be referred to a BIA attorney decision maker or an OHA deciding official subject to the provisions in § 15.205.

(c) We will notify all interested parties of:

(1) The right of the probable heirs or beneficiaries to request a formal hearing before an ALJ;

(2) The identification of the probable legal heirs; or

(3) The submission of an original or certified copy of a will or revocation and listed beneficiaries;

(4) Any known claims against the estate; and (5) The address of the designated office where the probate package has been sent.

(d) If the deciding official is at the BIA and you have not requested a formal hearing before an ALJ, the probate specialist will send the probate package to the BIA deciding official within 30 days after the date the probate specialists mailed the notice to you.

(e) If the deciding official is at the OHA, then we will send the probate package to the OHA deciding official and notify the probable heirs that they may ask the OHA for an in-person hearing at a site convenient to most of the parties, a video conference or teleconference hearing (if available), or a decision based on documents in the probate package.

(f) On the same day that the probate specialist has determined who will be the designated deciding official, we will notify you of this determination by certified mail, return receipt requested.

§ 15.204 After the probate package has been sent to a BIA deciding official, may I still request a formal hearing with an ALJ?

Yes, you may request a formal hearing before an ALJ at any time up until the date the BIA deciding official renders a decision.

§ 15.205 When will the BIA refer a probate to the OHA?

We will refer a probate to the OHA under § 15.203(d) if the probate specialist determines that a referral is appropriate. In determining whether to refer a probate to the OHA, the probate specialist will consider all of the criteria listed below:

(a) Problems with the will. The probate specialist will refer the probate package to the OHA if it appears that the will:

(1) Is likely to be contested;

(2) Is complex or ambiguous; or

(3) Is of questionable validity.

(b) Contested claims. The probate specialist will refer the probate package to the OHA if you:

(1) Contest a creditor claim; or

(2) Contest a claim made by a family member.

(c) Other problems. The probate specialist will refer the probate package to the OHA if it appears there are:

(1) Questions about family relationships;

(2) Conflict in prior probate orders;

(3) Problems with the evidence;

(4) Questions about adoption of an heir;

(5) Questions involving paternity;

(6) Presumptions of death;

(7) Rights of minor heirs that might be jeopardized;

(8) Disclaimers of interests by Indian probable heirs or beneficiaries;

(9) Determinations of escheat under 43 CFR § 4.205;

(10) Challenges to the jurisdiction of any court that issued an order that has been used as a supporting document; or

(11) Questions concerning the decedent's domicile.

(d) Approval of settlement agreements. The probate specialist will refer the case to the OHA if there is a settlement agreement between heirs or beneficiaries as to the disposition of the estate.

§ 15.206 Is there a summary process for distributing an estate with only trust cash assets?

Yes. Unless otherwise provided by federal law or a tribal inheritance code approved by the Secretary, a decedent's estate that contains only trust cash assets of a value less than $5,000 not including any interest that may have accrued after the death of the decedent, may be summarily processed by a BIA deciding official.

(a) Within 30 days after notice under § 15.203 has been sent, the probable heirs may request a formal hearing before an ALJ to determine the proper
