

§ 668.31

34 CFR Ch. VI (7-1-03 Edition)

(c) Although the reporting standard is generally on an exception basis—that only non-compliance need be reported—it should be recognized that governmental entities often want positive statements regarding whether or not the auditor's tests disclosed instances of noncompliance. This is particularly true in grant programs where authorizing agencies frequently want assurance in the auditor's report that this matter has been considered. For such audits, auditors should obtain an understanding with the authorizing agency as to the extent to which such positive comments on compliance are desired. When coordinated audits are involved, the audit program should specify the extent of comments that the auditor is to make regarding compliance.

(d) When noncompliance is reported, the auditor should place the findings in proper perspective. The extent of instances of non-compliance should be related to the number of cases examined to provide the reader with a basis for judging the prevalence of non-compliance.
