

§ 460.118

(c) Display. The PACE organization must meet the following requirements:

- (1) Write the participant rights in English and in any other principal languages of the community.
- (2) Display the participant rights in a prominent place in the PACE center.

§ 460.118 Violation of rights.

The PACE organization must have established documented procedures to respond to and rectify a violation of a participant's rights.

§ 460.120 Grievance process.

For purposes of this part, a grievance is a complaint, either written or oral, expressing dissatisfaction with service delivery or the quality of care furnished.

(a) Process to resolve grievances. A PACE organization must have a formal written process to evaluate and resolve medical and nonmedical grievances by participants, their family members, or representatives.

(b) Notification to participants. Upon enrollment, and at least annually thereafter, the PACE organization must give a participant written information on the grievance process.

(c) Minimum requirements. At a minimum, the PACE organization's grievance process must include written procedures for the following:

- (1) How a participant files a grievance.
- (2) Documentation of a participant's grievance.
- (3) Response to, and resolution of, grievances in a timely manner.
- (4) Maintenance of confidentiality of a participant's grievance.

(d) Continuing care during grievance process. The PACE organization must continue to furnish all required services to the participant during the grievance process.

(e) Explaining the grievance process. The PACE organization must discuss with and provide to the participant in writing the specific steps, including timeframes for response, that will be taken to resolve the participant's grievance.

(f) Analyzing grievance information. The PACE organization must maintain, aggregate, and analyze information on grievance proceedings. This information must be used in the PACE organization's internal quality assessment and performance improvement program.

§ 460.122 PACE organization's appeals process.

For purposes of this section, an appeal is a participant's action taken with respect to the PACE organization's noncoverage of, or nonpayment for, a service.

(a) PACE organization's written appeals process. The PACE organization must have a formal written appeals process, with specified timeframes for response, to address noncoverage or nonpayment of a service.

(b) Notification of participants. Upon enrollment, at least annually thereafter, and whenever the interdisciplinary team denies a request for services or payment, the PACE organization must give a participant written information on the appeals process.

(c) Minimum requirements. At a minimum, the PACE organization's appeals process must include written procedures for the following:

(1) Timely preparation and processing of a written denial of coverage or payment as provided in § 460.104(c)(3).

(2) How a participant files an appeal.

(3) Documentation of a participant's appeal.

(4) Appointment of an appropriately credentialed and impartial third party who was not involved in the original action and who does not have a stake in the outcome of the appeal to review the participant's appeal.

(5) Responses to, and resolution of, appeals as expeditiously as the participant's health condition requires, but no later than 30 calendar days after the organization receives an appeal.

(6) Maintenance of confidentiality of appeals.

(d) Notification. A PACE organization must give all parties involved in the appeal the following:

(1) Appropriate written notification.

(2) A reasonable opportunity to present evidence related to the dispute, in person, as well as in writing.

(e) Services furnished during appeals process. During the appeals process, the
