use on existing roads, sampling, marking of routes, searching, or other similar activities that do not disturb the surface of the lands or require the removal of vegetation, shall be conducted on Federal lands prior to the issuance of a right-of-way grant or a temporary use permit.

[44 FR 58129, Oct. 9, 1979, as amended at 47 FR 38807, Sept. 2, 1982; 50 FR 1309, Jan. 10, 1985; 51 FR 31765, Sept. 5, 1986]

§ 2882.2 Requirements for applications for right-of-way grants and temporary use permits.

§ 2882.2-1 Applicant qualifications.

(a) An applicant for a right-of-way grant or temporary use permit shall be a citizen of the United States, an association of such citizens, a corporation organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State thereof, or a State or local government. Aliens may not acquire or hold any direct or indirect interest in rights-of-way, right-of-way grants or temporary use permits, except that they may own or control stock in corporations holding rights-of-way, right-of-way grants or temporary use permits if the laws of their country do not deny similar or like privileges to citizens of the United States.

(b) Each application by a partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity shall disclose the identity of the participants in the entity and shall include where applicable:

(1) The name, address, and citizenship of each participant (partner, associate or other);

(2) Where the applicant is a corporation, the name, address, and citizenship of each shareholder owning 3-percent or more of each class of shares, together with the number and percentage of any class of voting shares of the entity which each shareholder is authorized to vote; and

(3) The name and address of each affiliate controlled by, or that controls, the entity, either directly or indirectly. Where an affiliate is controlled by the entity, the application shall disclose the number of shares and the percentage of each class of voting stock of that affiliate owned, directly or indirectly, by the entity. If an affiliate controls the entity, the number of shares and the percentage of each class of voting stock of the entity owned, directly or indirectly, by the affiliate shall be included.

(c) Applications filed with Federal agencies, such as the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, to obtain a license, certificate or other authority for a project involving a right-of-way over, upon, under or through Federal lands for an oil and gas pipeline shall be simultaneously filed with the Bureau of Land Management in accordance with the provisions of § 2882.2-3 of this title.

[44 FR 58129, Oct. 9, 1979, as amended at 47 FR 12571, Mar. 23, 1982]

§ 2882.2-2 Application filing.

(a) Where the Federal lands involved are under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, application for a right-of-way grant or temporary use permit or for a renewal of either shall be filed with either the Area Manager, the District Manager or the State Director of a Bureau of Land Management office having jurisdiction over the Federal lands involved.

(b) Where the Federal lands involved are under the jurisdiction of two or more agencies of the Department of the Interior, or where the Federal lands involved are under the jurisdiction of one or more agencies of the Department of the Interior and one or more other Federal agencies, or where the Federal lands involved are under the jurisdiction of two or more non-Interior agencies, the initial application for a right-of-way grant or temporary use permit may be filed at the most convenient State Office of the Bureau of Land Management, at locations listed in § 1821.2-1 of this title or at the nearest Bureau of Land Management Office that has jurisdiction over a portion of the Federal lands involved. The Director, Bureau of Land Management will, upon notice of the application by field officials, assign a lead official and notify the applicant where all future communications concerning the project should be directed. All applications for temporary use permits that are filed subsequent to the filing of an application for a right-of-way grant shall be filed with the lead official. Applications for renewal of a right-of-way
