

below which collection efforts need not be taken. Cost and recovery data should also be useful in justifying adequate resources for an effective collection action.

§ 11.57 Automation.

The ACO shall work to automate the Agency's debt collection operations to the extent that it is cost effective and feasible.

§ 11.58 Prevention of overpayments, delinquencies, and defaults.

The ACO shall establish procedures to identify the causes of overpayments, delinquencies, and defaults and the corrective actions needed. All debts or loans, when first established, may be reported to commercial credit bureaus.

§ 11.59 Office of General Counsel.

The Office of General Counsel shall provide legal advice on claims collection matters to all debt collection officers and the Agency Collection Officer, as needed.

§ 11.60 Sale of debts due the United States arising under programs administered by the Agency.

Where debts due the United States arising under programs administered by the Agency prove to be uncollectable or unresolvable through procedures described in §§ 11.33 through 11.35, 11.41 through 11.48, and 11.50 through 11.55 and where the stated value of the debt is less than $100,000 or such higher limit prescribed by the Attorney General in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 3711(a)(2), excluding penalties and interest, then the Agency may contract to sell or assign such debts under competitive sales procedures. The Agency may sell or assign debts valued at $600, or less, excluding penalties and interest, after decision by the ACO. Where the debt exceeds $600, but is less than $100,000 or such higher limit prescribed by the Attorney General in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 3711(a)(2), exclusive of interest and penalties, the Agency may sell or assign such debts only after the ACO has coordinated such action with the Department of Justice and the General Accounting Office.

§ 11.61 Referral of delinquent debts to Department of the Treasury for offsets against tax refunds.

(a) FEMA may refer delinquent debts to the Department of the Treasury for offset against tax refunds in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 3720A and that Department's implementing regulations.

(b) FEMA will provide information to the Department of the Treasury within time limits prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury or his or her designee and in accordance with agreements entered into between FEMA and the Department of the Treasury and its constituent agencies.

(1) Information submitted to the Department of the Treasury shall include a description of:

(i) The size and age of FEMA's inventory of delinquent debts; and

(ii) The prior collection efforts that the inventory reflects; and

(2) In accordance with time limits and record transmission requirements established by the Department of the Treasury or its constituent agencies, FEMA may submit magnetic media containing information on debtors being referred to that Department for tax refund offset. FEMA may use the electronic data transmissions facilities of other federal agencies in transmitting data on debtors or for referral of debts to the Department of the Treasury.

(c) FEMA shall establish a collect-call or toll-free telephone number that the Department of the Treasury or its constituent agencies will furnish to debtors whose refunds have been offset to obtain information from FEMA concerning the offsets taken.

(d) Tax refund offset procedures described in §§ 11.61 through 11.64 shall apply to debts owed to the United States that are past-due and legally enforceable, and

(1) Except in the case of a judgment debt, the debt has been delinquent for at least three months but has not been delinquent for more than ten years at the time the offset is made; and

(2) Where FEMA has given the debtor at least 60 days from the date of mailing of the notification (described in § 11.63 of this part) to request a review within FEMA and to present evidence that all or part of the debt is not past-
