

§ 2516.110

45 CFR Ch. XXV (10–1–03 Edition)

chapter or a local partnership as described in § 2516.110.

(b) The types of grants for which each entity is eligible are described in § 2516.200.

§ 2516.110 Who may apply for a subgrant from a Corporation grantee?

Entities that may apply for a subgrant from a State, Indian tribe, or grantmaking entity are:

(a) An LEA, for a grant from a State for planning school-based service-learning programs.

(b) A local partnership, for a grant from a State or a grantmaking entity to implement, operate, or expand a school-based service learning program.

(1) The local partnership must include an LEA and one or more community partners. The local partnership may include a private for-profit business or private elementary or secondary school.

(2) The community partners must include a public or private nonprofit organization that has demonstrated expertise in the provision of services to meet educational, public safety, human, or environmental needs; was in existence at least one year before the date on which the organization submitted an application under this part; and will make projects available for participants, who must be students.

(c) A local partnership, for a grant from a State or a grantmaking entity to implement, operate, or expand an adult volunteer program. The local partnership must include an LEA and one or more public or private nonprofit organizations, other educational agencies, or private for-profit businesses that coordinate and operate projects for participants who must be students.

(d) A qualified organization, as defined in § 2515.20 of this chapter, for a grant from a State or Indian tribe for planning or building the capacity of the State or Indian tribe.

Subpart B—Use of Grant Funds

§ 2516.200 How may grant funds be used?

Funds under a school based service learning grant may be used for the purposes described in this section.

(a) Planning and capacity-building for States and Indian tribes. (1) A State or Indian tribe may use funds to pay for planning and building its capacity to implement school-based service-learning programs. These entities may use funds either directly or through subgrants or contracts with qualified organizations.

(2) Authorized activities include the following: (i) Providing training for teachers, supervisors, personnel from community-based agencies (particularly with regard to the utilization of participants) and trainers, conducted by qualified individuals or organizations experienced in service-learning.

(ii) Developing service-learning curricula to be integrated into academic programs, including the age-appropriate learning components for students to analyze and apply their service experiences.

(iii) Forming local partnerships described in § 2516.110 to develop school-based service-learning programs in accordance with this part.

(iv) Devising appropriate methods for research and evaluation of the educational value of service-learning and the effect of service-learning activities on communities.

(v) Establishing effective outreach and dissemination of information to ensure the broadest possible involvement of community-based agencies with demonstrated effectiveness in working with school-age youth in their communities.

(b) Implementing, operating, and expanding school-based programs. (1) A State, Indian Tribe, or grantmaking entity may use funds to make subgrants to local partnerships described in § 2516.110 (b) to implement, operate, or expand school-based service-learning programs.

(2) If a State does not submit an application that meets the requirements for an allotment grant under § 2516.400, the Corporation may use the allotment to fund applications from those local partnerships for programs in that State.

(3) Authorized activities include paying the costs of the recruitment, training, supervision, placement, salaries and benefits of service learning coordinators.
