

- (1) The radiotelephone alarm signal (whenever possible);
- (2) The distress call;
- (3) The distress message.
- (b) Radiotelephone distress transmissions must be made slowly and distinctly, each word being clearly pronounced to facilitate transcription.
- (c) After the transmission by radiotelephony of its distress message, the mobile station may be requested to transmit suitable signals followed by its call sign or name, to permit direction-finding stations to determine its position. This request may be repeated at frequent intervals if necessary.
- (d) The distress message, preceded by the distress call, must be repeated at intervals until an answer is received. This repetition must be preceded by the radiotelephone alarm signal whenever possible.
- (e) When the mobile station in distress receives no answer to a distress message transmitted on the distress frequency, the message may be repeated on any other available frequency on which attention might be attracted.

EFFECTIVE DATE NOTE: At 68 FR 46968, Aug. 7, 2003, § 80.320 was amended by redesignating paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e) as paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) respectively, and adding a new paragraph (b) effective October 6, 2003. For the convenience of the user, the revised text is set forth as follows:

§ 80.320 Radiotelephone distress call and message transmission procedure.

* * * * *

- (b) The DSC distress procedure consists of:
 - (1) Transmission by a mobile unit in distress;
 - (2) Reception;
 - (3) Acknowledgement of distress calls;
 - (4) Distress relays.

§ 80.321 Acknowledgement of receipt of distress message.

- (a) Stations of the maritime mobile service which receive a distress message from a mobile station which is beyond any possible doubt in their vicinity must immediately acknowledge receipt. However, in areas where reliable communication with one or more coast stations is practicable, ship stations may defer this acknowledgement for a short interval so that a coast station may acknowledge receipt.

- (b) Stations of the maritime mobile service which receive a distress message from a mobile station which beyond any possible doubt is not in their vicinity, must allow a short interval of time to elapse before acknowledging receipt of the message in order to permit stations nearer to the mobile station in distress to acknowledge receipt without interference.

§ 80.322 Form of acknowledgement.

- (a) The acknowledgement of receipt of a radiotelegraph distress message is transmitted in the following form:
 - (1) The distress signal SOS;
 - (2) The call sign of the station sending the distress message, sent three times;
 - (3) The word DE;
 - (4) The call sign of the station acknowledging receipt, sent three times;
 - (5) The group RRR;
 - (6) The message signal SOS.
- (b) The acknowledgement of receipt of a radiotelephone distress message is transmitted in the following form:
 - (1) The distress signal MAYDAY;
 - (2) The call sign or other identification of the station sending the distress message, spoken three times;
 - (3) The words THIS IS;
 - (4) The call sign or other identification of the station acknowledging receipt, spoken three times;
 - (5) The word RECEIVED;
 - (6) The distress signal MAYDAY.

§ 80.323 Information furnished by an acknowledging station.

- (a) Every mobile station which acknowledges receipt of a distress message must on the order of the master or person responsible for the ship, aircraft, or other vehicle carrying such mobile station, transmit as soon as possible the following information in the order shown:
 - (1) Its identifier;
 - (2) Its position;
 - (3) The speed at which it is proceeding towards, and the approximate time it will take to reach the mobile station in distress.
- (b) Before sending this message, the station must ensure that it will not
