

§ 102.33

§ 102.33 How can I write to a Systems Manager?

You can write to a Systems Manager by writing to the SBA Office which maintains the record you are seeking. If you do not know which office that is, or you do not know the address of that office, you can write to the PA Officer at 409 3rd Street SW., Suite 5900, Washington, DC 20416, who will forward your request to the proper Systems Manager.

§ 102.34 How can I see records kept on me?

(a) You may look at any information pertaining to yourself contained in any SBA system of records unless some law or regulation prohibits it.

(b) In order to see this information, you must ask for it in writing, identifying what records you want. The writing should be addressed to the Systems Manager overseeing the system of records containing the record you wish to see.

(c) The Systems Manager (or, when appropriate, the PA Officer) may ask for more specific information about the system of records in which the document you are seeking is kept, and may ask you for identification. The Systems Manager may ask you for your social security number but you are not obliged to present it and your request will not be denied simply because you do not provide it. The Systems Manager may, however, deny your request if he or she cannot determine that you are the person to whom the information pertains.

§ 102.35 How long will it take SBA to respond to my request?

The Systems Manager will respond within 10 working days.

§ 102.36 How will SBA respond to my request?

The Systems Manager will inform you that:

(a) Your request is denied, in which case he or she will set forth the reasons for denial and your rights to appeal; or

(b) Your request is granted and you may view your record, in which case he or she will set forth the time and date for you to review your record in the presence of an SBA employee; or

13 CFR Ch. I (1-1-03 Edition)

(c) Your request is granted and, unless you object, SBA will mail you a copy of your record. SBA will mail you your record only if it determines that there are no other reasonable means for you to obtain access to your record.

§ 102.37 How may I appeal a decision to deny me access to my records?

Your appeal should be in writing and should set forth any information you think would show that you should have access to your records.

§ 102.38 To whom should my appeal be addressed?

(a) Denial of a personnel file. Address an appeal of a denial of a request for a personnel file to the Office of Personnel Management, 1900 E Street NW., Washington, DC 20006.

(b) Denial of an Equal Employment Opportunity Complaint File. Address an appeal of a denial of a request for an Equal Employment Opportunity Complaint File to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 1801 L Street NW., Washington, DC 20036.

(c) All other appeals. Appeal the denial of any other record to the PA Officer. See § 102.30.

§ 102.39 By when must I appeal to the Privacy Act Officer?

Your appeal must reach the PA Officer on or before 30 calendar days after the date the denial was issued. If your appeal is based on the failure of the Systems Manager to answer your request, your appeal must reach the PA Officer on or before 90 calendar days after the date by which the Systems Manager should have responded under § 102.35.

§ 102.40 When will SBA respond to my appeal?

The PA Officer will respond to you within 30 working days of the date when your appeal was received.

§ 102.41 How will SBA respond to my appeal?

The PA Officer will inform you that:

(a) Your request is denied, in which case the reasons for denial will be set forth along with your rights to judicial review of SBA's decision; or
