

§ 314.11

(c) In the event of the sale, collection, or liquidation of RLF loans, any proceeds, net of repaid principal and reasonable administrative costs incurred, up to the amount of the outstanding loan principal, must be returned to the RLF for relending. Any net proceeds from loan sales above the outstanding loan principal is considered RLF income and must either be added to the RLF capital base for lending or used to cover eligible costs for administering the RLF in accordance with the rules for use of RLF income. The net transaction proceeds must be used for additional loans as part of the RLF project.

Subpart D—Release of EDA's Property Interest

§ 314.11 Procedures for release of EDA's property interest.

(a) Before the expiration of the estimated useful life of the grant project, EDA may release, in whole or in part, any real property interest, or tangible personal property interest, in connection with a grant after the date that is 20 years after the date on which the grant was awarded. (The term "tangible personal property" excludes debt instruments, currency, and accounts in financial institutions.) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, such release is not automatic; it requires EDA's approval, which will not be withheld except for good cause. The release may be unconditional, or may be conditioned upon some activity of the recipient intended to be pursued as a consequence of the release.

(b) EDA hereby releases all of its real and tangible personal property interests in projects awarded under the Public Works Employment Act of 1976 (Pub. L. 94-369) and under that act as amended by the Public Works Employment Act of 1977 (Pub. L. 95-28).

(c)(1) Notwithstanding §§ 314.11(a) and (b), in no event, either before or after the release of EDA's interest, may project property be used:

(i) In violation of the nondiscrimination requirements of the project award, or
