§ 1100.13

letter to the employee together with a memorandum calling the employee's attention to the provisions of this order. However, the Section will not assist the creditor in collecting the debt.

§ 1100.12 Gifts, entertainment, and favors.

(a) Except as provided below, an employee shall not solicit or accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, gratuity, favor, entertainment, loan, or any other things of monetary value, from a person who:

(1) Has, or is seeking to obtain, contractual or other business or financial relations with the Section;

(2) Conducts operations or activities that are regulated by the Section; or

(3) has interests that may be substantially affected by the performance or nonperformance of his official duty.

(b) The restrictions set forth above do not apply to:

(1) Obvious family or personal relationships, such as those between the employee and his parents, children, or spouse, when the circumstances make it clear that those relationships rather than the business of the persons concerned are the motivating factors;

(2) The acceptance of food and refreshments of nominal value on infrequent occasions in the ordinary course of a luncheon or dinner meeting or an inspection tour where an employee may be properly in attendance;

(3) The acceptance of loans from banks or other financial institutions on customary terms to finance proper and usual activities of employees, such as home or automobile mortgage loans; and

(4) The acceptance of unsolicited advertising or promotional material, such as pens, pencils, note pads, calendars, and other items of nominal intrinsic value.

(c) An employee shall not solicit a contribution from another employee for a gift to an official superior, make a donation as a gift to an official superior, or accept a gift from an employee receiving less pay than himself (5 U.S.C. 7351). However, this paragraph does not prohibit a voluntary gift of nominal value or donation in a nominal amount made on a special occasion such as marriage, illness, or retirement.

(d) An employee shall not accept a gift, present, decoration, or other thing from a foreign government unless authorized by Congress as provided by the Constitution and in 5 U.S.C. 7342.

(e) This order does not preclude an employee from receipt of bona fide reimbursement, unless prohibited by law, for expenses of travel and such other necessary subsistence as is compatible with this Order for which no Government payment or reimbursement is made. However, this Order does not allow an employee to be reimbursed, or payment to be made on his behalf, for excessive personal living expenses, gifts, entertainment, or other personal benefits, nor does it allow an employee to be reimbursed by a person for travel on official business under Section orders when reimbursement is proscribed by Decision B-128527 of the Comptroller General dated March 7, 1967.

(f) A gift or gratuity, the receipt of which is prohibited by this Order shall be returned to the donor with a written explanation why the return is necessary. A copy of the written explanation shall be submitted to the Personnel Director for filing in the employee's Official Personnel Folder (left side). When the return of the gift is not possible, the gift or gratuity shall be submitted to the Personnel Director with a written explanation why the return is not feasible. The Personnel Director shall turn the gift or gratuity over to a public or private charity or charitable organization.

§ 1100.13 Financial interests.

(a) An employee shall not:

(1) Have a direct or indirect financial interest that conflicts substantially, or appears to conflict substantially, with his Government duties and responsibilities; or

(2) Engage in, directly or indirectly, a financial transaction as a result of, or primarily relying on, information obtained through his Government employment.

(b) The Order does not preclude an employee from having a financial interest or engaging in financial transactions to the same extent as a private
