

(i) The experience and training of key personnel in project management and in fields particularly related to the objectives of the project; and

(ii) Any other qualifications of key personnel that pertain to the quality of the project.

(e) Budget and cost effectiveness. (5 points) The Secretary reviews each application to determine the extent to which—

(1) The budget is adequate to support the project activities;

(2) Costs are reasonable in relation to the objectives of the project and the number of participants to be served; and

(3) The budget narrative justifies the expenditures.

(f) Evaluation plan. (10 points) The Secretary reviews each application to determine the quality of the evaluation plan for the project, including the extent to which—

(1) The plan identifies, at a minimum, types of data to be collected and reported with respect to the academic and vocational competencies demonstrated by participants and the number and kind of academic and work credentials acquired by participants who complete the training;

(2) The plan identifies, at a minimum, types of data to be collected and reported with respect to the achievement of project goals for the enrollment, completion, and placement of participants. The data must be broken down by sex and by occupation for which the training was provided;

(3) The methods of evaluation are appropriate for the project and, to the extent possible, are objective and produce data that are quantifiable; and

(4) The methods of evaluation provide periodic data that can be used by the project for ongoing program improvement.

(g) Employment opportunities. (10 points) The Secretary reviews each application to determine the quality of the plan for job placement of participants who complete training under this program, including—

(1) The expected employment opportunities (including any military specialties) and any additional educational or training opportunities that are related to the participants' training;

(2) Information and documentation concerning potential employers' commitment to hire participants who complete the training; and

(3) An estimate of the percentage of trainees expected to be employed (including self-employed individuals) in the field for which they were trained following completion of the training.

§ 401.22 What additional factors may the Secretary consider?

The Secretary may decide not to award a grant or cooperative agreement if—

(a) The proposed project duplicates an effort already being made; or

(b) Funding the project would create an inequitable distribution of funds under this part among Indian tribes.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C. 2313(b))

§ 401.23 Is the Secretary's decision not to make an award under the Indian Vocational Education Program subject to a hearing?

(a) After receiving written notice from an authorized official of the Department that the Secretary will not award a grant or cooperative agreement to an eligible applicant under § 401.2(a)(1), an Indian tribal organization has 30 calendar days to make a written request to the Secretary for a hearing to review the Secretary's decision.

(b) Within 10 business days of the Department's receipt of a hearing request, the Secretary designates a Department employee who is not assigned to the Office of Vocational and Adult Education to serve as a hearing officer. The hearing officer conducts a hearing and issues a written decision within 75 calendar days of the Department's receipt of the hearing request. The hearing officer establishes rules for the conduct of the hearing. The hearing officer conducts the hearing solely on the basis of written submissions unless the officer determines, in accordance with standards in 34 CFR 81.6(b), that oral argument or testimony is necessary.

34 CFR Ch. IV (7-1-04 Edition)

(c) The Secretary does not make any award under this part to an Indian tribal organization until the hearing officer issues a written decision on any appeal brought under this section.

Subpart D—What Conditions Must Be Met After an Award?

§ 401.30 How do the Indian Self-Determination Act and the Act of April 16, 1934 affect awards under the Indian Vocational Education Program?

(a) Grants, cooperative agreements, or contracts with tribal organizations are subject to the terms and conditions of section 102 of the Indian Self-Determination Act (25 U.S.C. 450f). These awards must be conducted by the recipient or contractor in accordance with the provisions of sections 4, 5, and 6 of the Act of April 16, 1934, that are relevant to the projects administered under this part. Section 4 contains requirements pertaining to submission of an education plan by a contractor. Section 5 pertains to participation of parents of Indian children. Section 6 pertains to reimbursement for educating non-resident students.

(b) Grants to Bureau-funded schools are not subject to the requirements of the Indian Self-Determination Act or the Act of April 16, 1934.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C. 2313 (b)(1)(A)(ii)(I) and (II))

§ 401.31 What are the evaluation requirements?

(a) Each grantee shall annually provide and budget for either an internal or external evaluation, or both, of its activities.

(b) The evaluation must be both formative and summative in nature.

(c) The annual evaluation must include—

(1) Descriptions and analyses of the accuracy of records and the validity of measures used by the project to establish and report on the academic and vocational competencies demonstrated and the academic and work credentials acquired;

(2) Descriptions and analyses of the accuracy of records and the validity of measures used by the project to establish and report on participant enrollment, completion, and placement by sex and socio-economic status for each occupation for which training has been provided;

(3) The grantee’s progress in achieving the objectives in its approved application, including any approved revisions of the application;

(4) If applicable, actions taken by the grantee to address significant barriers impeding progress; and

(5) The effectiveness of the project in promoting key elements for participants’ job readiness, including—

(i) Coordination of services;

(ii) Improved attendance rates; and

(iii) Improved basic and vocational skills competencies.
