APPENDIX A-1 TO PART 60—TEST METHODS 1 THROUGH 2F

- Method 1—Sample and velocity traverses for stationary sources
- Method 1A—Sample and velocity traverses for stationary sources with small stacks or ducts
- Method 2—Determination of stack gas velocity and volumetric flow rate (Type S pitot tube)
- Method 2A—Direct measurement of gas volume through pipes and small ducts
- Method 2B—Determination of exhaust gas volume flow rate from gasoline vapor incinerators
- Method 2C—Determination of gas velocity and volumetric flow rate in small stacks or ducts (standard pitot tube)

Method 2D—Measurement of gas volume flow rates in small pipes and ducts

Method 2E—Determination of landfill gas production flow rate

Method 2F—Determination of Stack Gas Velocity and Volumetric Flow Rate With Three-Dimensional Probes

The test methods in this appendix are referred to in §60.8 (Performance Tests) and §60.11 (Compliance With Standards and Maintenance Requirements) of 40 CFR part 60, subpart A (General Provisions). Specific uses of these test methods are described in the standards of performance contained in the subparts, beginning with Subpart D.

Within each standard of performance, a section title "Test Methods and Procedures" is provided to: (1) Identify the test methods to be used as reference methods to the facility subject to the respective standard and (2) identify any special instructions or conditions to be followed when applying a method to the respective facility. Such instructions (for example, establish sampling rates, volumes, or temperatures) are to be used either in addition to, or as a substitute for procedures in a test method. Similarly, for sources subject to emission monitoring requirements, specific instructions pertaining to any use of a test method as a reference method are provided in the subpart or in Appendix B.

Inclusion of methods in this appendix is not intended as an endorsement or denial of their applicability to sources that are not subject to standards of performance. The methods are potentially applicable to other sources; however, applicability should be confirmed by careful and appropriate evaluation of the conditions prevalent at such sources.

The approach followed in the formulation of the test methods involves specifications for equipment, procedures, and performance. In concept, a performance specification approach would be preferable in all methods because this allows the greatest flexibility to the user. In practice, however, this approach is impractical in most cases because performance specifications cannot be established. Most of the methods described herein, therefore, involve specific equipment specifications and procedures, and only a few methods in this appendix rely on performance criteria.

Minor changes in the test methods should not necessarily affect the validity of the results and it is recognized that alternative and equivalent methods exist. Section 60.8 provides authority for the Administrator to specify or approve (1) equivalent methods, (2) alternative methods, and (3) minor changes in the methodology of the test methods. It
