§91.1106

shall be subject to the provisions of §91.1103, except that if the country that is to receive the engine has emission standards that differ from the standards prescribed under subpart B of this part, then the engine must comply with the standards of the country that is to receive the engine.

§91.1105 Injunction proceedings for prohibited acts.

(a) The district courts of the United States have jurisdiction to restrain violations of §91.1103.

(b) Actions to restrain such violations must be brought by and in the name of the United States. In an action, subpoenas for witnesses who are required to attend a district court in any district may run into any other district.

§91.1106 Penalties.

(a) Violations. A violation of the requirements of this subpart is a violation of the applicable provisions of the Act, including sections 203 and 213(d), and is subject to the penalty provisions thereunder.

(1) A person who violates §91.1103(a)(1), (a)(4), or (a)(5), or a manufacturer or dealer who violates §91.1103(a)(3)(i), is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $25,000 for each violation.

(2) A person other than a manufacturer or dealer who violates §91.1103(a)(3)(i) or any person who violates §91.1103(a)(3)(ii) is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $2,500 for each violation.

(3) A violation with respect to §91.1103 (a)(1), (a)(3)(i), (a)(4), or (a)(5) constitutes a separate offense with respect to each marine SI engine.

(4) A violation with respect to §91.1103(a)(3)(ii) constitutes a separate offense with respect to each part or component. Each day of a violation with respect to §91.1103(a)(6) constitutes a separate offense.

(5) A person who violates §91.1103(a)(2) or (a)(6) is subject to a civil penalty of not more than $25,000 per day of violation.

(b) Civil actions. The Administrator may commence a civil action to assess and recover any civil penalty under paragraph (a) of this section.

(1) An action under this paragraph may be brought in the district court of the United States for the district in which the violation is alleged to have occurred or in which the defendant resides or has the Administrator's principal place of business, and the court shall have jurisdiction to assess a civil penalty.

(2) In determining the amount of a civil penalty to be assessed under this paragraph, the court is to take into account the gravity of the violation, the economic benefit or savings (if any) resulting from the violation, the size of the violator's business, the violator's history of compliance with Title II of the Act, action taken to remedy the violation, the effect of the penalty on the violator's ability to continue in business, and such other matters as justice may require.

(3) In any such action, subpoenas for witnesses who are required to attend a district court in any district may run into any other district.

(c) Administrative assessment of certain penalties—(1) Administrative penalty authority. In lieu of commencing a civil action under paragraph (b) of this section, the Administrator shall assess any civil penalty prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, except that the maximum amount of penalty sought against each violator in a penalty assessment proceeding can not exceed $200,000, unless the Administrator and the Attorney General jointly determine that a matter involving a larger penalty amount is appropriate for administrative penalty assessment. Any such determination by the Administrator and the Attorney General is not subject to judicial review. Assessment of a civil penalty is made by an order made on the record after opportunity for a hearing held in accordance with the procedures found at part 22 of this chapter. The Administrator may compromise, or remit, with or without conditions, any administrative penalty which may be imposed under this section.

(2) Determining amount. In determining the amount of any civil penalty assessed under this subsection, the Administrator is to take into account the gravity of the violation, the economic benefit or savings (if any) resulting
