

§2.8

(17) Associate Director for Response and Recovery; and

(18) Associate Director for Operations Support.

(c) Each officer named in paragraph (b) of this section is authorized to:

(1) Approve official travel as temporary duty travel on official business and allowable expenses incidental thereto for employees of their respective organizational units, in accordance with the Federal Travel Regulations; except that travel to and from points outside of the United States is subject to prior notification to the Director and foreign travel (i.e., travel outside the United States and its insular areas) is subject to prior approval of the Director. However, no officer or employee may approve his or her own travel. Travel of officers named in paragraph (b) of this section is approved by the Deputy Director or the Chief of Staff, except that travel of a Regional Director may be approved by the Deputy Regional Director for that Region.

(2) Approve travel advances of funds through disbursing officers or imprest fund cashiers for employees of the respective organizational units who are entitled to per diem or mileage allowance or subsistence expenses in accordance with the Federal Travel Regulations.

(3) Approve travel vouchers for employees of their respective organizational units.

(4) Approve travel by employees of their respective organizations at the invitation and expense of parties outside of the Federal Government, with the concurrence of the Designated Agency Ethics Officer (DAEO) or a Deputy DAEO;

(5) Approve funding requisitions;

(6) As appropriate, issue final agency decisions on individual or class complaints of discrimination because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, or economic status.

(7) Promulgate internal guidance to cover areas of assigned responsibilities.

(8) Approve training costing less than $2500 (all expenses) or training of less than 80 hours in duration, whichever is more restrictive, except that this authority does not include authority to approve training involving the use of facilities of foreign governments or international organizations, which must be approved by the Director; or the authority to approve acceptance by employees of contributions or awards from non-Government organizations, whether in cash or in kind, which must be approved by the Director.

(9) Adjust working hours for individual employees when there is special justification therefor that it is in the interest of FEMA or to accommodate individual needs of employees for legitimate reasons where the work of the agency will not be impeded.

(10) Approve incentive awards to subordinates, Public Service Awards, cash awards of $1,500 or less for individuals and quality within-grade salary increases.

(11) Enter into and administer funded and unfunded memoranda of understanding with respect to assigned duties.

(12) Classify documents derivatively, based on the original classification by other Federal agencies or the Director.

§2.8 Designation of subordinates to act.

Each officer named in §2.7(b) shall:

(a) Submit to the Director, for approval, a list of three or more subordinates to act for such officer during his or her absence; and

(b) Ensure that each Division Director, Branch Chief, or head of any other organizational unit under that officer's authority designate one or more subordinate employees to serve as acting head of the unit during the absence of the head of a unit or during a vacancy in the position.

FEMA OFFICES

§2.11 Office of the Director.

The Deputy Director is the first assistant to the Director under the Vacancies Act, 5 U.S.C. 3341 et seq., and acts in place of the Director when the Director is not available because of illness or incapacity. The Deputy Director is the Chief Operating Officer of the Agency, with the duties and powers set forth in Presidential Memorandum of October 1, 1993, "Implementing Reform in the Executive Branch." The Deputy Director is authorized to exercise the
