

Federal Communications Commission

§21.23

(9) The application is filed after the cutoff date prescribed in §21.31 or §21.914 of this part;

(10) The application proposes the use of a frequency not allocated to such use; or

(11) The application does not contain the FCC Registration Number (FRN) as required under subpart W of part 1 of this part.

(c) Applications considered defective under paragraph (a) of this section may be accepted for filing if:

(1) The application is accompanied by a request which sets forth the reasons in support of a waiver of (or an exception to), in whole or in part, any specific rule, regulation, or requirement with which the application is in conflict; or

(2) The Commission, upon its own motion, waives (or allows an exception to), in whole or in part, any rule, regulation or requirement.

(d) If an applicant is requested by the Commission to file any documents or any supplementary or explanatory information not specifically required in the prescribed application form, a failure to comply with such request within a specified time period will be deemed to render the application defective and will subject it to dismissal.

§21.22 Repetitious applications.

(a) Where an applicant has been afforded an opportunity for a hearing with respect to a particular application for a new station, or for an extension or enlargement of a service or facilities, and the Commission has, after hearing or default, denied the application or dismissed it with prejudice, the Commission will not consider a like application involving service of the same kind to the same area by the same applicant, or by the applicant's successor or assignee, or on behalf of or for the benefit of the original parties in interest, until after the lapse of 12 months from the effective date of the Commission's order. The Commission may, for good cause shown, waive the requirements of this section.

(b) Where an appeal has been taken from the action of the Commission denying a particular application, another application for the same class of station and for the same area, in whole or in part, filed by the same applicant or by the applicant's successor or assignee, or on behalf of or for the benefit of the original parties in interest, will not be considered until the final disposition of such appeal.

§21.23 Amendment of applications.

(a)(1) Any pending application may be amended as a matter of right if the application has not been designated for hearing, or for comparative evaluation pursuant to §21.35, or for the random selection process, provided, however, that the amendments must comply with the provisions of §21.29 as appropriate and the Commission has not otherwise forbidden the amendment of pending applications.

(2) A Multipoint Distribution Service application tentatively selected for qualification review by the random selection process may be amended as a matter of right up to 14 days after the date of the public notice announcing the tentative selection, provided, however, that the amendments must comply with the provisions of §21.29 as appropriate and the Commission has not otherwise forbidden the amendment of pending applications.

(3) Provided, however, applications may not be amended if the amendments seek more than a pro forma change of ownership or control (bankruptcy, death or legal disability) of a pending Multipoint Distribution Service application and any amendment or application will be dismissed if the amendment or application seeks more
