

§ 575.102 Delegation of authority.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the head of an agency (or, with respect to positions not under the General Schedule, the head of an Executive agency) may pay a recruitment bonus to an employee who is newly appointed to—

(1) A General Schedule position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5332;

(2) A senior-level or scientific or professional position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5376;

(3) A Senior Executive Service position paid under 5 U.S.C. 5383 or a Federal Bureau of Investigation and Drug Enforcement Administration Senior Executive Service position paid under 5 U.S.C. 3151;

(4) A position as a law enforcement officer, as defined in § 550.103 of this chapter.

(5) A position under the Executive Schedule established under subchapter II of chapter 53 of title 5, United States Code, or a position the rate of pay for which is fixed by law at a rate equal to a rate for the Executive Schedule;

(6) An executive branch position filled by Presidential appointment (with or without the advice and consent of the Senate); or

(7) A prevailing rate position, as defined in 5 U.S.C. 5342(a)(3).

(b) The delegation of authority under paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply to the payment of a recruitment bonus to—

(1) The head of an agency, including an agency headed by a collegial body composed of two or more individual members; or

(2) An employee appointed to a position in the expectation of receiving an appointment as the head of an agency.

(c) The head of an Executive agency may request that OPM authorize the payment of a recruitment bonus to one or more categories of employees of his or her agency not otherwise covered by 5 U.S.C. 5753 or this subpart.

(d) When OPM finds that an agency is not paying recruitment bonuses in conformance with the agency's recruitment bonus plan and the criteria established under § 575.104 of this part or otherwise determines that the agency is not using this authority selectively and judiciously, it may—

(1) Direct the agency to revoke or suspend the authority granted to any organizational component of the agency and with respect to any category or categories of employees and require that prior approval be secured at headquarters level before paying a recruitment bonus to such employees; or

(2) Revoke or suspend the authority granted to the head of the agency by paragraph (a) of this section for all or any part of the agency and with respect to any category or categories of employees and require that prior OPM approval be secured before paying a recruitment bonus to such employees.

§ 575.103 Definitions.

In this subpart: Agency has the meaning given that term in 5 U.S.C. 5102.

Commuting area has the meaning given that term in § 575.203.

Employee means—

(a) An employee in or under an agency who is newly appointed; or

(b) An individual not yet employed who has received a written offer to be newly appointed and has signed a written service agreement in accordance with § 575.106 prior to payment of the recruitment bonus.

Head of agency means the head of an agency or an official who has been delegated the authority to act for the head of the agency in the matter concerned.

Involuntarily separated refers to a separation initiated by an agency against the employee's will and without his or her consent for reasons other than cause on charges of misconduct or delinquency. An involuntary separation includes a separation resulting from the employee's actual inability to do the work following genuine efforts to do so, but does not include a separation under part 752 of this chapter or an equivalent procedure for reasons that involve culpable wrongdoing on the part of the employee. In addition, when an employee is separated because he or she declines to accept reassignment outside his or her commuting area, the separation is involuntary if the employee's position description or other
